1. Welcome

- Community Assembly minutes can be found on InfoMart at <http://infomart/minutes/communityassemblies/or>.

2. Campus Announcements/Updates

- Dean Robert Spann reviewed a PowerPoint presentation on Tuition that was presented to the Board of Trustees.
- Lieutenant Seder reviewed when to call 911 for Emergencies from a campus phone or internal class room phone (i.e. illnesses, injuries, witnessing a crime, when a victim of a crime, witnessing fire, smoke, hazmat, etc.). Farmington Hills Police will send EMS, Fire and Police (whatever is required) and contact the Oakland County Dispatch who will notify Public Safety.
  - For non-emergencies call 5555 from any internal campus phones and from cell phones or off campus phones use (248) 858-4911
  - Lt. Seder reminded staff to review:
    - Infomart (Preparing for an Emergency)
    - The Active Shooter Video
    - Emergency Response Plan and Video (Also have a hard copy in your area)
    - Public Safety does not carry EpiPens
    - Lt. Seder asked for volunteers for employees to serve as Building Marshalls for Building M, J and Lower K.

3. Department/Committee Updates

- Arlene Frank reported on upcoming Student Life Activities:
  - Reimagining Cities: Race and Religion on October 21st, from 12-1pm, in A214 at the Orchard Ridge Campus

- Masculinity: The Mask You Live In, November 4th, 1-3pm, J 294. This event includes a documentary following boys and young men as they struggle to stay true to themselves, while negotiating America's narrow definition of masculinity.
- The Jewish Student Organization sponsored an event in conjunction with the Diversity and Inclusion Committee on "The Past is Alive", which included an 88-year old Holocaust Survivor's account and presentation. Unfortunately, the event was not well attended.
- Nadja Springer-Ali reported on Diversity and Inclusion Events:
  - Approximately 100 people attended "Exploring Colorism"
- IT Update:
  - Debbie Ksionzek informed attendees to a power shutdown that will occur on October 24th. Employees are reminded to power down their computers/turn off all of their equipment.
  - Debbie thanked everyone for making possible the successful roll-out of the new print management system on campus.

The next Community Assembly will be November 19, 2015 at 3:00 pm.
