Dear Friend:

Here are the names of the people in the Jackson/Detroit church ^{Pictures} folks in those early days of their fellowship. The picture is a treasure both from the standpoint of clarity as well as documenting this point of church history. Thanks for your help in putting all this together.

First row, left to right: Glynn (son of Millie and Albert) McConnell, Clyde (son of Lenora and Horace) McConnell, Bilam (son of Millie and Albert) McConnell, Allean Sutton (removed to Cleveland), and W. D. (son of Lenora and Horace) McConnell.

Second row: Charlotte (mother of Pirt, Albert and Horace) McConnell, Luvenia (Mrs. Milton) Sisson, Milton Sisson, Hannah (Mrs. Homer) Sisson, Ione (Sisson, Mrs. Ernest) Thomas, Mildred (Mrs. Charles, 1st wife) Latham, Sarah (Shanklin) Rogers, and T. H. York (minister from Detroit).

Third row: O. A. Echols (first Jackson minister), Lenora (Mrs. Horace) McConnell, (unknown), Emma (Mrs. Clyde) Sisson, Vera Lee (Shanklin) Leake, Pirt (McConnell) Milben, Millie (Mrs. Albert) McConnell, brother Hubbard, Horace McConnell holding his daughter, Lula, and Richard Flemming, (minister).

Fourth row: Albert McConnell, Sam Redding, Homer Sisson, Clyde Sisson (in front), brother Voss (behind), brother Madden (in front), Charles Latham (behind), John Owens, Ernest Thomas, and Alvin Debow.

Yours in Christ,

R. Vernon Boyd
