Autumn cuts album and begins summer tour

Recording sessions joined the hectic days of banquets, term projects, exams, and graduation activities as Autumn completed a new album in late April. The recording, entitled 66 Miles to Madison, features group members Clay Sturgeon of Phoenix, Arizona (center); Tim Dill of North Manchester, Indiana (left); and Tom Rellinger of Gladwin, Michigan (right). Records or cassettes may be ordered from the Admissions Office for $6.00 prepaid or $8.46 C.O.D.

As soon as the academic year ended, the group began their early-summer tour, including thirty-six performances at regional banquets, youth rallies, and home parties throughout the midwest. The group's late-summer tour includes visits to fourteen Christian camps in seven states. If Autumn comes your way this summer, don't miss them!

Students restore waterflow to pools in Oriental Garden

Natural beauty has always been an outstanding trait of the campus of Michigan Christian College. For over twenty years, students have watched the campus expand around the lakes and gardens of the former Maxon estate. The Oriental Garden, located next to the former mansion, has remained a favorite spot for pictures. However, the pools in the garden have been inoperative for the past twelve years.

Shortly before graduation, the Student Body Association sponsored a restoration project in the Oriental Garden, providing volunteer labor as well as about $800 in materials. Under the direction of Norm Smith of Farmington, Michigan and Kent Piatt of Englewood, Ohio, the students patched and resealed the pools, installed new water lines and a pump station, and planted several new flowers and shrubs in the garden. Within hours after the pools were flowing with water, the first unsuspecting victims found themselves joining the goldfish in the pools!

Seniors join 2,500-plus at Partnership Dinner

April 19 marked a special day as over 2,550 people gathered at Cobo Hall in Detroit for MCC's Partnership Dinner IX. Representatives of ninety-five congregations attended the $60 per plate benefit dinner, including 124 seniors who received guest tickets courtesy of a local Christian businessman.

After dinner, seniors riding the campus bus visited Canada, and then ventured up the scenic elevator to the top of Detroit's Renaissance Center. One student later wrote to an MCC counselor, "Thank you for the most wonderful weekend I've ever had."

Next year's Partnership Dinner X is scheduled for April 11 at Cobo Hall. Guest tickets for 1981 graduates are again anticipated. If you are getting ready to begin your senior year in the fall, be sure to mark your calendar!
