

THE LOGIC OF EVENTS

VERIFIES THE WISDOM OF THE AFRO-AMERICAN LEAGUE PLAN.

President Price Calls Upon Local Leagues to Push the Work.—Vice Presidents Requested to Organize the Work in Their Boundaries.

Open Letter to the Afro American League. Livingstone College, SALISBURY, N. C., September 27, 1890.

The Afro-American League is not only a reality, but a necessity and a fixture. It needs therefore no apology or defence...

It is a source of gratification, however, to realize that the Afro American League idea is in keeping with the progressive, energetic and patriotic Americanism of the nineteenth century.

Organization of forces for the common weal and combination of efforts for mutual defense and helpfulness, are the characteristic and irresistible tendencies of our times.

A single farmer demanding relief from oppression and a fair show in the commercial race was treated with indifference a few years ago.

The logic of events has thus far sustained the statement. The farmers are now allied like a famous Roman Legion; and every interest, even those political as well as those social and commercial is now paying deference to the hitherto ignored and oppressed farmer.

As individuals the Afro American does not represent much intellectual or material strength. He is of little consequence as a force in commercial centers.

As individuals the Afro American does not represent much intellectual or material strength. He is of little consequence as a force in commercial centers.

As individuals the Afro American does not represent much intellectual or material strength. He is of little consequence as a force in commercial centers.

do not possess the manhood and patriotism to stand up in defense of these constitutional rights, and protest long and loud and unflinchingly against their continual infringement, we are unworthy of our heritage as American citizens and deserve to have fastened on us the wrongs of which many of us are disposed to complain.

It is my humble opinion that in searching for a remedy for the evils confronting us we have looked too constantly at the influence without us and not enough at the forces within us.

Such utterances have the right ring of courage and patriotism; and such sentiments coming from leading men throughout the country have resulted in the organization of the Afro-American League.

In order to secure the ends held in view by the League every Afro-American, throughout the country, and especially every member of the organization, should stand ready to do faithful and courageous service for the race.

The League is in every sense a defensive movement. Every man and every race ought to guard with jealous care and defend unto death the infringements of their rights or the curtailment of their privileges guaranteed to them by the organic law of the land.

The Leagues throughout the country deserve to be congratulated because of the work which many of them have already done and because of the door of usefulness which is wide open to them everywhere.

to do this is a drawback to the League in carrying out its plans for the more complete organization and prosecution of its work.

The objects of the League are patriotic and noble and worthy the best energies of any race. The necessities of our situation are urgent and the time for self-reliant, persistent and judicious action is at hand.

Notice! Here is an offer that all should profit by. I have made arrangements to change my business on Nov. 1st next and will then discontinue the manufacture of "Baccata." I have now on hand 2,000 packages which I will give to the public at the cost of manufacture, which is $5 per dozen. I will also send to all who order one dozen packages or one half dozen at $3, the formula for making Baccata; this will enable you to prepare Baccata at any time you wish to use it. I have a great many letters from persons who speak in glowing terms of Baccata, but for obvious reasons I have not published them to the world, but will send the addressed to any one sending stamp, and you can write to them and learn what Baccata has done for them. All orders must be sent in by Nov. 1st as after that date all money will be returned without the goods. Hoping all readers of this paper will avail themselves of this offer. I am yours, Dr. E. S.
