

TURN EARTH FOR CHURCH

—Officials of the Church of Christ, 2000 Forest ave., turn the first shovel of earth for a new place of worship in the 300 block of E. Holmes rd., in a brief ground-breaking ceremony Sunday afternoon. Left to right are: Elder Russell Taylor, Odell Kirby, minister, and Elder Jay W. Robinson. Mr. Kirby, speaking at the event attended by about 110 persons, emphasized the need for a more commodious building for the future growth of the congregation. Work on the new structure will begin June 10, with Barrett Construction company of Flint, as the contractor. Edward Koeber of Cleburne, Tex., was the architect.
