"I have thought about MCC many times since my return to campus. For a few days it was though I had found a lost civilization of peace, brotherly love, innocence and contentment in a world that has too little love, too many anxieties, too much criticism, too many pressures and far too little concern for God, the Grand Designer of the Universe. It would appear that you have indeed found the 'Keys to the Kingdom.' " From a letter to President Don Gardner from a member of the Evaluating Team after a visit on the MCC campus.
