Mrs. LaJuana Gill, MCC's 1985 Artist of the Year, stands on the campus' north bridge which she used as the subject of her oil painting.

Artist of the Year Paints bridge scene

"A photograph can more accurately show the beauty of God's handiwork, but a picture can depict the way the artist feels," said 1985 Artist of the Year Mrs. LaJuana Gill about her oil painting.

Her painting of the wooden bridge at the north end of campus was unveiled at the October 8 Parents' and Friends' Luncheon during the Fall Lectureship.

"This picture is a reflection of my love for MCC," Mrs. Gill said.

"I chose to paint a picture of the bridge because it symbolizes to me what Michigan Christian is all about. MCC is the bridge that spiritually prepares students to go on to bright futures in God's service."

The Artist of the Year program was begun in 1981 as a means of recognizing artists who are alumni or friends of the college.

Each year, the artist is commissioned to paint an MCC campus oil scene, copies of which are reprinted and sent to Century Club donors as a thank you gesture. Century Club members are those individuals or families who during the preceding year contribute $100 or more to MCC.

The painting becomes the property of MCC for display in college facilities and for reproduction.

Mrs. Gill lives with her husband Randy and their son in Malibu, California.

Mr. Gill was MCC's music director before moving to California in 1984 to begin work on his doctorate in music. Mrs. Gill taught art and interior design as a part-time faculty member at MCC between 1982 and 1984.

New Chairman Elected

At the recent annual board meeting of Michigan Christian College, Royce Dickinson of Trenton, Michigan, was elected chairman to succeed Robert Utley, who has held the position for the last five years.

Mr. Dickinson, formerly vice-chairman of the board, is secretary-treasurer of Power Process Piping, a Trenton specialty mechanical contractor. From 1972 to 1977, he served as vice president of finance at MCC. He is currently the minister at the Trenton Church of Christ.

The Dickinsons have long been supporters of MCC. Both Betty Dickinson and the three Dickinson children, Royce Jr., Edward and Kathryn, are alumni.

Mr. Dickinson holds a bachelor's in business from Benjamin Franklin University in Washington, D.C., and a master's in religion from Alabama Christian College of Religion.

Mr. Utley, in stepping down as chairman, cited the burden of his work as president of Utley Brothers Inc., a specialty printing firm of Troy, Michigan, and as an elder at the Rochester Church of Christ. He credited Milton B. Fletcher, president of MCC since 1980, for the improved academic and financial growth of the college during the past five years.

In his resignation letter to the board, Utley said: "The one achievement of which I am most proud is the role I was able to play in bringing Dr. Fletcher here as our fifth president. His coming has marked a real turning point in the fortunes of the college."

About Mr. Utley, President Fletcher said: "James R. (Bob) Utley has served with distinction as chairman of the Board of

Mr. Royce Dickinson
Chairman of the Board

Trustees. His leadership will continue to have its impact for years to come.

"He is truly one of the great volunteers who has served and continues to serve Michigan Christian College."

Dr. Steven Eckstein added to MCC Bible Department

President Milton B. Fletcher and Dr. Leonard Knight, academic dean, have announced the appointment of Dr. Steven Eckstein as a professor of the Bible Department of MCC.

"We feel very fortunate in his joining our faculty," President Fletcher said. He will add depth and experience to our program.

"The college community and the church will benefit greatly from Steve and Mildred Eckstein's presence. She has worked side by side with Dr. Eckstein in their work at the Eastern New Mexico Bible Chair."

The Ecksteins have come to MCC from ENMU where Dr. Eckstein taught at the Bible Chair for the past 33 years. He has also been chairman of the Department of Religion for 20 years.

The Ecksteins have four children and ten grandchildren.

Brian Eckstein, 31, a teacher at the Bible Chair at Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas, for the past six years, and his wife Estelle have four children.

The Eckstein's oldest daughter Pam is married to David Joyner who teaches mathematics at Lubbock Christian College. They have four children.

Nan Eckstein works in Houston for Continental Airlines and is a teacher at the Bammel Road congregation.

Jan Eckstein is married to Kevin Skidmore who is the campus minister at the University of Cincinnati. The Skidmores have two daughters.

Pre-engineering major offered in September

Effective this fall, Michigan Christian College will begin offering an Associate in Science degree with a major in pre-engineering.

Though the program will facilitate transfer to any engineering school, it is specifically designed to provide the first two years of Oklahoma Christian College's new programs in electrical, computer and mechanical engineering.

Message from the President

Dear Friends:

As each of us knows, there are few people in life who become "close" friends—those who are closer than a brother. That is the way I feel about Bob and Mary Utley. This letter is rather personal because of my respect and love for this great couple.

Bob has just stepped down after five years as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Michigan Christian College. We will miss his leadership but look forward with great confidence to the leadership of Royce Dickinson.

I wanted to take this opportunity to say thanks to Bob and Mary for being such influential leaders in the cause of Michigan Christian College.

Mary has been an active Associate since the organization began, having served as President and a member of the Board for several years. Bob has served with distinction as Chairman of the Board of Trustees since just before Gene and I returned to Michigan Christian College. In fact, his being in that position had so very much to do with our deciding to return. I've seen him under pressure that no one can understand unless he has served in such a position. Yet, Bob came through with good judgment and success. He is firm and not afraid to take a stand even when his position is not always the most popular. He has tenacity. He is totally honest and fair. The Board will miss his leadership but will move forward with Royce Dickinson. We all realize that no person is indispensable.

May I commend Bob Utley as one of the outstanding volunteers who has served Michigan Christian College. We pray that he and Mary will have long lives and good health. Bob continues to serve as a faithful member of the Board and will be of tremendous value on committees. They continue to be active supporters of Michigan Christian College.

Hats off to James R. (Bob) and Mary Utley!

Very sincerely,

Milton B. Fletcher
President

Spring offerings set

Michigan Christian College will again be offering condensed courses for preachers and Bible class teachers in May 1986. Classes are scheduled in New Testament textual studies as well as techniques of counseling.

Mr. Barry Blackburn and Dr. Steven Eckstein, both MCC Bible professors, and Dr. Leonard Knight, dean of students and interim academic dean, will teach the courses. Most courses will meet from May 20-30, 1986.

While on campus, visiting students may stay in the residence halls along with others who will be concurrently enrolled in a number of other liberal arts courses.

To receive more information on any classes being offered contact Dean Knight's office at 651-5800.

Retirees encouraged to join MCC's Retired Volunteers Club

As announced in the Message from the President in the fall 1985 MCC Bulletin, a Retired Volunteers Club of Michigan Christian College has been established.

President Fletcher mentioned in his letter that as he reflected upon the coming to MCC of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Southern and now of Dr. Zelma Odle, all retired faculty members from Abilene Christian University, he desired to "give honor to whom honor is due."

"It dawned on me that volunteer contributors to Michigan Christian College across the years are beyond our ability to measure in total value to the school and to the contributors themselves," he said.

President Fletcher went on to mention several of the "retired" volunteers who have given so freely of their time and talents and ended with the guidelines adopted by MCC for the Retired Volunteers Club.

The guidelines are as follows: A member must be 60 years of age or older and must have contributed volunteer service either on a full- or part-time basis for a period of at least one year.

Both men and women are eligible. No educational requirements are necessary except for those who are placed on the faculty.

This campus-based club must operate independently of all volunteer affiliate organizations such as the Board of Trustees, the Associates, the Men's Club and the Advisory Board. The work of these volunteers directly relates to the budgeted campus operations.

The people who are added to the Retired Volunteers Club will be honored after the one year mentioned above with a plaque recognizing their membership. Their names will be engraved on a master plaque on the campus.

All are encouraged to become members of the RVC by meeting these guidelines. If you feel you would like to make this kind of contribution during your retirement years, please contact the Office of the President.

Partnership Dinner speaker confirmed

The 15th annual Partnership Dinner will be held Saturday, May 3, 1986, at Cobo Hall.

This event began with a dinner on the campus of MCC but soon moved to Cobo Hall in Detroit where it has been held since, with the exception of one year at the Silverdome.

Over the years, thousands have met together in support of the college by purchasing tickets from chairmen in local congregations.

This year Mr. Gene Stallings, who for many years has been a backfield coach for the Dallas Cowboys, will be the guest speaker.

The banquet will also include singing, devotional readings and a musical performance.

Of his children, Dr. Eckstein said they have all been very active in the Bible Chair at ENMU and have written many articles for The Voice, the Bible Chair's monthly publication. All have also studied Greek.

About his position at ENMU, Dr. Eckstein said: "The Bible Chair has been and always will be the students, not the building or the teacher. What a privilege it has been to teach some 5,000 over the past 33 years.

"I have had the opportunity to be a part of about 150 M.A. degrees in Bible and have directed about 40 M.A. theses. Hundreds of others have completed the B.A. or B.S. in Bible. "These have been some of the finest men and women in the world."

The Ecksteins have looked forward to working at MCC for several months.

"As we enter a new field of service, we do so with great anticipation," Dr. Eckstein said. "We have been often in prayer asking God to guide and use us for His glory. It will be a pleasure to work with Dr. Fletcher and the faculty and staff at the college."

Bible with a heavy concentration of science, mathematics and engineering courses.

New courses being added to the MCC curriculum in conjunction with this program include Physics I, Physics II, FORTRAN for Engineers, engineering graphics and design, and engineering economics.

The College Board reports engineering as third in demand among college majors on a nationwide basis.

Projections by the Michigan Employment Security Commission for the Detroit area indicate job growth rates ranging from 17.8 percent to 64 percent by 1990, depending upon the various engineering fields being discussed (electrical, mechanical, etc.). A job growth rate of only 8.4 percent is estimated for other occupations.

A study by Michigan State University lists engineering fields in five of the top six spots for estimated starting salaries in 1986.

Since its founding, MCC has served pre-engineering students.

Former MCC students are now serving in such positions as product development engineer for the Chrysler Corporation, mechanical engineer for Wright Patterson Air Force Base, distribution engineer for Southern Bell Telephone, industrial engineer for AC Spark Plug, and electrical engineer for General Motors.

The new coursework included in the pre-engineering major will make preparation at MCC even stronger.

For more information about the new pre-engineering program or any of MCC's other academic programs, contact the MCC Office of Admissions.

Southerns' "retirement" means more work ahead

Dr. Paul and Mrs. Margaret Southern have packed more into one lifetime than most people could into ten.

And they aren't finished yet.

True, they have now officially "retired" from MCC after trying to do so for the last five years, but their retirement has only freed them from one position of servanthood so that they might soon venture into another.

When Michigan Christian College persuaded these great friends to come out of retirement from Abilene Christian University where Dr. Southern had worked for 37 years, the last 17 as head of the Bible Department, MCC expected to reap the benefits of the Southerns' services for one year.

ONE YEAR soon turned into two and eventually into five and a half.

"We had retired from Abilene, and Margaret had retired from the public school, and we had done this Australia bit, and MCC sent Jesse Clayton (former MCC Director of Development) to see us," Dr. Southern explained.

"MCC was trying to get this BRE program and they didn't have anyone in Bible with a doctor's degree, so we told them we'd just give our time if they would bear our expenses.

"We were only going to come one year. We still have our home back there," Dr. Southern said.

The "Australia" bit Dr. Southern mentioned hints at just one of the many reasons why MCC has been so fortunate to have the Southerns on board.

A WEALTH of experiences preceded their years at MCC.

Besides Dr. Southern's years as a professor at Abilene Christian University, he has a lifetime of experience as a minister in the Church of Christ.

The Southerns met in 1926 and after Margaret's father, an elder and minister in the church, performed their wedding ceremony 3½ years later, the Southerns lived in several places in Texas while Dr. Southern taught school, worked on his master's degree, and preached on the weekends.

Mrs. Southern especially remembers when Dr. Southern quit his teaching job and they moved to Weatherford so he could preach full time during the Depression years.

"THIS SOUNDS terrible," she said, "but we got $25 a week and even rented our own home. I went two years and didn't buy a pair of shoes or a dress or anything. That was really rough. The only thing was that nobody else had anything either."

At the time, Mrs. Southern also had a bachelor's degree but was not allowed to teach because only one salary was allowed per family during the Depression.

She spent her time giving private speech lessons, supervising a Girl Scout troupe, and caring for her son Paul, born in 1932, and daughter Sylvia Ann, born in 1936.

Mrs. Southern later began working on a master's degree in education and ran a private school for first graders, the children of professionals in the Abilene area.

Over the years, the Southerns' love of travel and of teaching others about Christ eventually led them to begin doing mission work and visiting mission schools worldwide.

IN SYDNEY, Australia, they taught for five terms at the Macquarie School of Preaching (now Macquarie School of Biblical Studies). They also worked in gospel meetings all over the country.

Other ventures led them to work in a school in Brazil and to the European Christian College in Vienna, Austria.

They also taught at Columbia Christian College in Portland, Oregon.

Upon retirement from MCC in December, the Southerns headed back to their home in Texas, where Dr. Southern is scheduled for cataract surgery Jan. 20.

They then hope to be able to go to New Zealand to begin teaching in the South Pacific Bible College.

NOT ENOUGH can be said about the good the Southerns have done over the years.

"Dr. Southern has served as a counselor for years and has helped untold hundreds of families to work out their problems," President Fletcher said.

For 12 years, Dr. Southern was a member of the Board of the Mental Health-Mental Retardation Center in Abilene.

He also helped organize the first Abilene Counsel of Alcoholism and was both local and state president of the Texas Mental Health Association.

After World War II, Dr. Southern had a radio program called "Question, Please," where people would send in questions that he would answer on the air in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

And, before there were Christian homes for unwed mothers, the Southerns also helped pregnant girls through their pregnancies.

"We'd find them a place to stay, and I'd make them maternity clothes," Mrs. Southern said. "Then I had to go into the labor room with them like I was their mother."

Over the years, the Southerns

Dr. Paul and Mrs. Margaret Southern have been the recipients of numerous awards for their service to others.

ONE MORE will soon be given.

At the annual Lectureship at Abilene Christian University, Dr. and Mrs. Southern will be honored at the Feb. 16 luncheon.

There they will receive the Christian Service Award for their lifetime of service to the church, to Christian education, and to those in need.

In reflecting upon his years of friendship with the Southerns and of their service to MCC, President Fletcher commented:

"As Solomon said in Proverbs 27:17, 'As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.'

"Paul and Margaret Southern, as solid, stalwart people, have the ability to mold and sharpen the lives of all of us who have worked with them.

"You can't associate with them on a day-to-day basis without being positively affected for good because of their strong influence.

"Christian people sharpen each other's lives by the power of their influence. The Southerns have sharpened all of us who have worked with them."

How to protect your rights with a will

Having a will is one of the best ways of protecting your right to distribute property as you choose—even after your death.

What is a will?

A "will" specifies in writing what is to be done with your property at the time of your death. In other words, your will allows you to make known, in a form that is legally recognized, the way you want your estate to be divided. A will protects your loved ones and allows you to continue your support of Michigan Christian College.

Protect your right of private ownership. If you do not have a will, or if your will is out-of-date, send for the complimentary booklet offered below, or telephone MCC's Office of the President at (313) 651-5800.

Salary Sharing Campaign a success

"The Annual Salary Sharing Campaign is well over the $200,000 mark and it looks as if we can make the goal," President Milton B. Fletcher said. "We are so pleased with the great response. Many people help make this campaign successful."

This year's Salary Sharing/Phone-A-Visit Campaign for Michigan Christian College has realized over $208,000 in pledges. These were solicited via the direct mail program that began in early October and the Phone-A-Visit program that ran from the last week in October until Thanksgiving.

The money raised during the Salary Sharing Campaign goes into the general operating budget of the school. The funds are used to offset regular expenditures and help balance the budget.

The campaign is the largest single fund-raising effort the college is engaged in each year. Along with money raised from the Partnership Dinner and out of state Annual Fund Dinners, and money donated by the Associates and Men's Club, these funds help keep the school operating in the black.

Well over half of the money pledged comes through the Phone-A-Visit portion of the campaign. On each night of calling, students, faculty and friends of the college man 20 phones.

The callers ask donors and potential donors to pledge $5 or $10 a month or send a one-time gift of $25 or more during 1986. They explain that the money is used to help keep tuition costs as low as possible and build a stronger Michigan Christian College. Approximately 90 percent of the Phone-A-Visit callers are students.

"I don't know how we could run this campaign without you," President Fletcher explained as he thanked the student volunteer callers. "You do such an outstanding job. We can't thank you enough."

The largest single gift to the campaign came during the last night of the phoning. Utley Brothers Inc., the company owned by board member Robert Utley, donated $7,500.

Fall Festival

Queen's votes fund breaks record

Donna White, of the Lincoln Park chapter, was crowned queen of Michigan Christian College's annual Fall Festival September 8.

Hundreds of area women helped raise funds during the summer months to apply toward the queen's votes. Friends of Mrs. White, Mrs. Linda Butterfield (Flint), Mrs. Judy Miller (Oregon, Ohio), and Mrs. Margaret Southern (Rochester) were responsible for generating $21,984.48 for the college. This is the largest amount raised in the 23 years since the contest began.

The Fall Festival is sponsored each year by the Associates of MCC, a group of women who this year passed the $2 million mark raised on behalf of MCC. Thousands of supporters across the country look forward to the festival each year.

"I'll tell you, I was surprised," Mrs. White said after being crowned. "I said beforehand that I was a winner even if I didn't win — you can't be a loser here."

FRIENDS of Mrs. White hosted dozens of events to raise the funds. "It's been one grand conspiracy, that's what it was," she said.

There were garage sales, an estate sale, Queen's Way, Princess House and Tupperware sales, hamburger fries, a pancake supper, salad suppers and dinners galore.

A birthday party for one of the women where people were charged admission was even held.

ONE FRIEND, Mrs. Marcia Drumhiller of Grosse Ile, gave French lessons and donated the proceeds. Others sold hundreds of craft items at an art and crafts fair at the Southgate Shopping Center. Another friend sold a litter of puppies to raise funds.

When the ceremony ended, Mrs. White was anxious to get back to work at the Lincoln Park chapter's booth. This year the women were selling pastel parasols that could be personalized with the buyer's name and choice of artwork.

Mrs. White's husband Ronald is the minister of the Lincoln Park Church of Christ. The Whites have three children: Kent, 26, and Gerald, 22, both MCC alumni, and a daughter Jeanne, 16.

All of the Associates' chapters had successful booths this year.

AS USUAL, the food booths offered something for everyone. Salads, Mexican nachos, chili dogs, cotton candy, pies and other desserts were among the treats offered. Two items sold out early in the day: the homemade ice cream at the Farmington chapter's booth and the steerburgers sold by the Echo Meadows chapter from Toledo, Ohio.

The steerburgers have been a popular item for the past ten years. Those manning the booth claim to have sold 10,000 thus far, with 930 eaten this year.

For the children, pony rides, clowns, games and story-telling by Mother Goose (Mrs. Joanne Ladd of Flint) provided excitement.

For those a bit older, there was the dunk tank with such local "celebrities" as Mr. Kent Hoggatt, MCC alumnus and current director of church relations; Mr. Rick Watson, MCC alumnus and current assistant to MCC President Fletcher; Mr. Jerry Tallman, minister of the Rochester Church of Christ; and Jim Calkin (East Peoria, Illinois), a junior in MCC's Bachelor of Religious Education program.

ENTERTAINMENT came in other forms also. Before the crowning of the queen, Mr. Ed Buchanan, MCC chorus director, sang a song which he had composed titled "Two Million Dollar Ladies."

Those wishing to sit and rest a while headed for the chapel where Brackney and Co. gave a Bluegrass performance. The group consisted of MCC freshman David Brackney (Attica) and his two younger brothers Mark and Phillip, freshman Andy Kassak (Berkley), and sophomore Nathan Yoder (Flint).

THREE BOOTH winners were chosen this year. In the craft category, the Flint chapter took first. The booth was decorated with a silver foil-covered arch to which were attached envelopes, each designating an area of support such as chorus or computers to which money raised by the Associates goes each year.

The Parkside chapter won in the food tent category, while the Lapeer chapter took first in the outside decoration category. Lapeer's Country Peddler booth is always an attention getter with its bright red and white gingham covering.

As the day ended, many at the festival were already looking forward to next year when they could again be with those who help make the Festival such a success.

"My favorite part of the Fall Festival is seeing and talking to old friends from years past," Mary Juday, a 1982, MCC alumna said, expressing the sentiments of others around her.

Concert held for World Mission Workshop

by sophomore Jim Isenberg

You may recall when this past summer an outdoor rock event called "Live Aid" was held in England. In this concert, bands from all over the world performed for free and used the money raised from ticket sales to "feed the world."

"Live Aid" grossed well into the millions and inspired other musicians to hold similar benefit concerts, such as "Farm Aid."

Such concerts were the inspiration of a group of MCC students needed when they found that attending the World Missions Workshop at Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tennessee, would cost about $60 each.

Plans were soon in the making for a fund-raiser called, of course, "Mission Aid."

FIVE GROUPS from MCC chose October 21 as the date to give freely of their time to help pay the way for those traveling to Freed-Hardeman October 24-27. Receiving no pay, these groups displayed the perfect example of New Testament Christianity — giving freely of their talents.

Producer and host of the show, which took place in the cafeteria at 8 p.m., was sophomore Jim Isenberg (Melvindale). He wanted a show which would satisfy the musical tastes of everyone present, and he got it.

Larry Marsh (Ortonville) and Marty Phillips (Clio) opened the show with a tribute to Elvis Presley. Their 20-minute set consisted entirely of Elvis oldies.

THE TONE then changed to a more mellow beat as pianist Frank Pitts (Detroit) performed three soft-rock songs, including a touching song about friendship simply called "Friends."

Next in line was a half hour of Bluegrass as MCC freshman David Brackney was joined by his brothers Mark and Phillip who traveled from Attica to help out. The brothers were then joined by sophomore Nathan Yoder (Flint) for one song before a surprise performer, MCC security guard Mr. Vernon Wallace, accompanied the brothers on the banjo for their final two numbers.

Following intermission, freshmen Andy Kassak (Berkley) and Kevin Sharpe (Troy) and sophomore Matt Safranek (Rochester) performed 45 minutes of "New Wave" rock-n-roll; that is, with keyboards, electric guitars and a drum machine. The group performed under the name NRG, and energy is what they produced.

Insight gained at WMU

Twenty-six students and three sponsors from Michigan Christian College attended the World Mission Workshop held at Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tennessee, October 24-27, 1985.

This event, held on various Christian College campuses for the past 26 years, annually brings together students from Christian Colleges and Schools of Preaching from across America.

The audience got in the act as they sang along with Safranek during NRG's last song, "Pride (In the Name of Love)," written by the group U2.

THE FINAL ACT was a compilation of Gospel greats performed by the Ethnic Awareness Singers, a group of heritage-conscious Christians from MCC. Theirs was an outstanding performance with sophomore Angie Irvin as director.

The show closed with all the groups joining the Ethnic Awareness Singers in "Sending up My Timber." Freshman Tom Twigg (Michigan City, Indiana) led a closing prayer.

The show raised $170 which was used to help pay the way for the 26 MCC students who attended the World Mission Workshop the following weekend.

At Freed-Hardeman, more than 1,000 students from a dozen schools attended lectures and classes centered around the theme "God's Great Love." This is the second consecutive year MCC students attended the workshop. The 26 attending in 1985 is triple the number who went in 1984, when the workshop was held in Oklahoma.

SPONSORS were Mr. Coy Roper, Bible and Greek instructor; Miss Karen Allen, associate director of admissions; and Mr. Gary Palmer, bus driver. At the workshop, Mr. Roper also taught one class, titled "Doing Mission Work in English Speaking Countries."

The following students attended: Eric Alexander (Pontiac); Sonja Barcus (Lima, Ohio); Al Bugg (Troy); Jenny Carter (Livonia); Melissa Carter (Livonia); Steve Chmiel (Pontiac)

Fathers, daughters gather for banquet

The evening of September 13 was a special one for many MCC coeds and their fathers. The annual Father-Daughter Banquet was, as always, a time for reflecting and learning, laughing and loving.

For most daughters, the evening began with father and daughter pictures being taken outside on the beautiful campus.

When the fathers escorted their daughters into the cafeteria where the banquet was held, they were served a dinner of roast beef, baked potato with sour cream, carrots, rolls and Boston cream pie.

Acting as master of ceremonies, MCC Bible and Greek instructor Coy Roper welcomed everyone and captured the audience's attention with a heartwarming story about little girls.

After the dinner, entertainment began with Brackney and Co., a barbershop quartet featuring sophomores Scott Lanning (Burton) and Nathan Yoder (Flint), and freshman David Brackney and his younger brother (Attica).

Then performed for the audience was "My Dad and Me," a group of skits depicting firsts in a father's life. Company, MCC's traveling drama troupe, and other performers began the skits with father pacing back and forth on the hospital's maternity ward and concluded with father pacing back and forth minutes before his daughter's wedding.

The skits ended the evening on a comical note, as fathers could be seen shaking their heads and chuckling as they remembered living through so many of the scenes being acted out on stage.

Finally, as the fathers and daughters held hands, Mr. Bob Kirks, father of freshman twins Suzy and Sandy Kirks, led a closing prayer.

A special kiss for a special man — freshman twins Suzy and Sandy Kirks (Dearborn) greet their father, Mr. Bob Kirks, at the Father-Daughter Banquet.

Drama troupe opens season

Company, Michigan Christian College's one-year-old drama troupe, opened its season November 7 with the first of three evening performances.

Two hilarious one-act plays were given: "The Family Jewels" and "Fireman, Save My Child!"

Company has ten members this year, six of whom are returning members.

From the freshman class are Earl Bain (Grosse Pointe Farms) and Anita Waggoner (Selma, Alabama).

Sophomores include Charles Benya (St. Joseph), Dan Boren (Woodhaven), Kim Davidson (Claypool, Indiana), Lori Girdley (Ortonville), Tracy Johnson (Pontiac), Shannon Roper (Sterling Heights), Yvette Walker (Detroit), and Candace Washburn (Westland).

Miss Gale Edwards, Company director, is assisted this year by admissions counselor and MCC alumnus Paul Carpenter and sophomore Candace Washburn.

Plans for the second semester include the production of a children's show, "Cinderella Wore Combat Boots."

Fall Blood Drive Held

It hurts so little but helps so much.

In the Christian spirit of giving of self, dozens of MCC students and employees lined up October 1 to give blood at the annual fall blood mobile.

Because of colds or other factors, not all who came were able to donate blood, but the Red Cross nurses did leave MCC with 67 pints.

There were the brave.

"Taking my earing out hurt more than the needle," sophomore Kathy Barbier (Spring Lake) said about the initial blood test on her ear.

There were the intimidators.

"Watch out, Carol! It's a big needle!" Karla Bergdahl (Skandia) was heard commenting to Carolyn Norris (Ypsilanti).

And there were the reluctant.

Bible instructor Mr. Barry Blackburn lay on the table with the needle in his arm for 25 minutes before he finally heard the sweet words, "You're finished."

ALTHOUGH for the most part the students paid for the trip themselves, and although it involved traveling all night for two nights, the students who went were enthusiastic about the spiritual value of their experience.

Many are looking forward to attending next year's World Mission Workshop, to be held at Columbia Christian College in Portland, Oregon.

After the weekend, several participants expressed a desire to be more evangelistic, both at home and abroad.

"I'VE FOUND that wherever one is at is a mission field," Al Bugg said. "The love of God is for all, and we should take advantage of every opportunity to share that love with others."

Angela Raby added: "Wow! The WMW is something I'm not sure I can put in words. I guess you could say it's like Jesus' love for us — indescribable. That's something I saw more of in one weekend than I have in my entire life — real love. People, missionaries, and fellow friends became closer than ever before. I loved it! The campus, the people, the missionaries, and the devo's and lectures helped me — I'm going to France."

Darren Maggard, a junior in MCC's BRE program, said: "I am so thankful that I could go and meet with brothers and sisters in Christ who have the desire of evangelizing the world. There is no doubt in my mind that I will enter the mission field after graduation. Now I just have to pray that the Lord guides me to where he wants me to go."

Darren continued: "I have learned a lot about myself this weekend and for the first time maybe in my life as a Christian, I love and hurt and am in anguish for the lost souls. I will spend my life in the service of my Lord, telling lost souls of Jesus and His love."

SEVERAL students said how thrilled they were when freshman Steven Chmiel was baptized after studying with Darren Maggard and Tim Tostage.

Steven said: "Well, quite simply, the WMW weekend was the best weekend in my life. I found out the whole plan of salvation and completed the last part — I was baptized (at 1:30 a.m.). My stay at the workshop is beyond description. I'm looking forward to next year's, and I hope to see all of the friends I met this year. I encourage all to attend even if they aren't thinking of the mission field. The spiritual growth was tremendous, and I felt a sense of unity on the campus. Praise the Lord."

Homecoming nears

Plans are well underway for Michigan Christian College's annual Homecoming, February 1, 1986.

As always, the ten-year reunion is being planned by the class officers and will take place on Friday evening, January 31.

The Alumni Executive Committee has been meeting monthly, with much of the time being devoted to this year's Homecoming festivities.

MCC's current Student Body Association has chosen three sophomores and two freshmen as 1986 court members. Anxiously awaiting the announcement of who is to be crowned Homecoming queen are sophomores Sonja Barcus (Lima, Ohio), Pamela Cline (Grand Ledge), and Linda Clayton (Nashville, Tennessee), and freshmen Julie Kreh and Becky White, close friends from Searcy, Arkansas.

The Alumni Day activities will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday with registration, coffee and donuts.

At 10 a.m. in the MCC chapel, Mr. Ernie Gill, former minister of the Rochester Church of Christ, and current minister of the Church of Christ in Corbin, Kentucky, will be the featured speaker. MCC's Autumn will also perform, and the 1986 Homecoming Court will be introduced.

At 11 a.m. campus tours will be given, and a time of fellowship can be enjoyed in the Utley Student Center. Immediately following will be a noon luncheon at Ponderosa near the MCC campus. A short program has been planned to take place during the lunchtime activities.

The Homecoming game between the MCC Warriors and the Ohio Valley Scotts is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Following the game and Homecoming activities, the annual Homecoming Banquet, honoring the queen and her court, will begin at 6 p.m. Mr. Gill will again be the featured speaker.

Entertainment at the banquet will be provided by a group of three professional singers from the Detroit area. The group has a repertoire of 2,000 songs, and as the stroll among the guests during the banquet, they will accept requests for songs from individual diners as well as sing many of their own selections.

Business teams win 2nd, 4th

Each year, Michigan Christian College's top business students compete in the Harding Business Simulation National Competition.

This year, MCC sent two teams to the November 23 presentation held on the campus of Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas, with financial and technical sponsorship by the Louver Manufacturing Company (LOMANCO) of Jacksonville, Arkansas.

MCC has established herself as a leader of intercollegiate business gaming by being the only Christian college to always have a team finish in first or second place in the Harding-Lomanco Invitational.

By entering two teams in this year's competition, MCC became the first institution to do so in the history of that competition.

"We had such an outstanding group of talented students this year that we asked Professor David Johnson, coordinator of the games, for permission to enter two competing teams," Mr. David R. Briggs, MCC head sponsor, said.

All the students were enrolled in MCC's Business Simulation class and met together for three weeks to hear lectures on business terminology, strategic theory and presentation techniques.

Then students met for six more weeks during which each one-week period equaled one quarter of a business' operation.

Weekly decisions were made involving price, advertising, inventory, and salaries, for example. Financial statements and a cash flow analysis were also determined for each quarter.

After a year and a half (six weeks of class time) of company operation, the team then prepared itself for the extensive November 23 presentation.

Mr. Don Tate, MCC's accounts receivable clerk, sponsored the team known as "Free-Air Inc." He advised students while they prepared for both the decision-making and presentation phases of the competition.

Mr. Tate was a member of the first MCC Business Team, which took first place at the Inaugural Harding Invitational in 1983. He guided his team this year to a fourth place in the competition.

VIKING VENTILATION, INC.: Kneeling—Dan Haught (Abilene, Texas) and Karlton Turner (Montgomery, Texas). Standing—Mr. David Briggs, coach; Tracy Osredkar (Vanderbilt); Patrice Godsey (Lima, Ohio); Tim Mays (Westland).

FREE AIR, INC.: Seated—Suzanne Kirks (Dearborn) and Mark Starling (Utica). Standing—Mr. Don Tate, coach; Barry Chaffin (Warren); Vickie Liebzeit (Pontiac).

The dynamic team included Mark Starling (Utica), president; Suzanne Kirks (Dearborn), vice president of marketing; Vickie Liebzeit (Pontiac), vice president of production; and Barry Chaffin (Warren), vice president of finances.

Mr. Briggs, MCC's registrar, sponsored the team known as "Viking Ventilation Inc." His team took second place.

This team included Patrice Godsey (Lima, Ohio), vice president of finance; Dan Haught (Abilene, Texas), vice president of production; Tracy Osredkar (Vanderbilt), president; and Karlton Turner (Montgomery, Texas), vice president for marketing.

According to Mr. Briggs, "The level of competition is rapidly rising. Both teams improved on our record in the presentation portion of the games as well as matching the decision-making performances of MCC's previous teams."

Faculty News

Mr. Charles Babb, assistant professor of computer science and mathematics, completed a second master's August 15, 1985. He received a Master's of Science in Computing Science Education from the University of Evansville, Indiana.

Mr. Babb also participated in the Sixth Annual Small College Institute in Data Processing during a week-long workshop at the U. of E. He was one of a panel of six who discussed the retraining of people in computer science.

Mr. David R. Briggs, registrar and business instructor, has written a paper titled "Sensitivity Analysis in Multiple Attribute Utility Theory" which was published in Applied Decision System Models, a book released in October by Academic Decision Systems Company of Ypsilanti.

Oakland University faculty members recently recommended the dissertation of Dr. Fawn Knight, an MCC English instructor, for consideration as one of the ten best dissertations in Reading and Language submitted during 1985 in the United States. Dr. Knight completed her Ph.D. at Oakland University in October.

Mr. Coy Roper, associate professor of Bible and Greek, has written 13 expository sermons on the epistles of James and Jude. The sermons were published in the July issue of Preacher's Periodical.

In October, Mr. Roper presented a three-session class on the home at the Great Lakes Christian College Lectureship. He also lectured at the October World Missions Workshop held at Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tennessee.

Financial Aid - facts, fiction

FICTION. Federal and state budget cuts have practically wiped financial aid out of existence.

FACT. Although there have been some changes in eligibility requirements, there is still available aid. In fact, the Pell Grant recently increased from $1,800 to $2,100 and the State Tuition Grant from $1,300 to $2,100 per year.

A large majority of MCC students are receiving aid, including various forms of grants, scholarships, loans and work programs.

The average aid package still covers over two-thirds of the cost for a full-time boarding student at MCC.

FICTION. Families must have a very low income in order to qualify for aid.

FACT. Naturally the lower the income, the more aid a student can receive. Yet some current MCC students with a family income over $44,000 are receiving some federal and state assistance to attend MCC.

FICTION. It is wiser to live at home and commute to the community college since this option only involves tuition costs.

FACT. The College Board reports an average annual cost of $3,627 at the community college.

Many fail to consider the cost of owning and operating a car on a daily basis, the usage of extra utilities at home, and grocery bills.

In addition, community colleges usually do not offer as much financial aid or the benefits of a Christian college environment.

FICTION. It makes no difference when one applies for aid.

FACT. Sure, some types of aid are available regardless of application date, but many are not.

Michigan residents must apply for aid by mid-February in order to receive the $2,100 Tuition Grant.

Out-of-state students should apply for aid during the spring months.

Later applicants receive aid, but their packages include less grant aid.

For more information about financial aid or for aid application forms, write to the MCC Office of Admissions or phone (313) 651-5800.

Matching Gift List

Multiply the dollars you give to Michigan Christian College!

Triple it —or more!

That's right...you can literally double the dollar value of your gift to the college or university of your choice if you work for one of the firms listed in this leaflet, or many of their divisions, subsidiaries, or affiliated companies.

All of the companies listed will match your gift to four-year colleges and universities. Use the key to determine if your company will match gifts to other higher education institutions as well.

To make your match, simply obtain a form from your company's Matching Gift Coordinator (usually in the personnel or community relations department) and send it along with your gift to the institution you choose. Your company's Matching Gift Coordinator can also answer any further questions you may have about this program.

It's possible that your company has a matching gift program even if it is not listed here. Why not ask?

It's as easy as it sounds, so make your dollars double by taking advantage of your company's Matching Gift Program today. After all, America's Energy is Mindpower. Join in partnership with your company in support of America's greatest resource.

Warriors aim for Nationals

The 1985-86 Warriors are off to one of the finest starts in the school's history. As the first semester ended, the team, coached by Garth Pleasant, was 9-1.

The season has been highlighted by victories over Macomb Community College, Alpena Community College, Ohio Valley, and the junior varsity team from Adrian.

In past years, a balanced scoring attack has characterized Coach Pleasant's teams. This year is no exception, with four players currently averaging double figures a game.

The Warriors are led in scoring by freshman Steve Boyd. Boyd, a 6-foot-3 swingman from Ann Arbor, is averaging 19.1 points per game as well as pulling down 7 rebounds a game.

Steve McClurg, a 6-foot-2 freshman from Madison Heights, averages 16 points per game. Errol Anglin and Dave Lyerla are averaging 14.8 and 11 points per game respectively.

The 6-foot-6 Anglin, who is from Jamaica, is the team's leading rebounder. Lyerla, a 6-foot-4 sophomore from Lapeer, was selected as one of the tri-captains.

Anthony Strickland rounds out the starting lineup as the team's point guard. Strickland, a 6-foot-3 sophomore, is a transfer from Concordia College in Ann Arbor.

Strickland also was selected as a tri-captain along with Lyerla and 6-foot-5 freshman Dennis Spier. Spier, from Suriname, South America, is a tremendous rebounder and is described by Coach Pleasant as "the ultimate team player."

The Warriors have also benefited from the play of sophomore Todd Grizzell from Pleasant Ridge; Steve Riche, a 6-foot-5 forward from Huntsville, Alabama; and freshman Ken Hollie from Detroit.

The squad is rounded out by sophomores Matt Bugg from Troy and Rob Oldham from Cleveland, Ohio; along with freshmen Dean Winski, Troy; Dan Haught, Abilene, Texas; Dan Hryckowian, Holly; and Brad Hoover, from Anderson, Indiana.

Although the Warriors are currently 9-1, Coach Pleasant does not believe the team members have played to their capabilities.

"I feel this group is extremely talented, but because of their youth we have been very inconsistent," Pleasant said.

"We do not have any starters returning from last year's squad, and I do not believe I have found the right chemistry as of yet. We seem to be improving every day and that is a vital characteristic to our team's success.

"If we can continue to practice daily with intensity and poise, then I believe it will be another exciting year for our basketball program."

Position opening: Maintenance

Applications are now being accepted for a general maintenance man for MCC. Applicant should possess skills in areas such as boilers, refrigeration, electrical, plumbing, and light-duty repair work. Interested persons may send a resume to: Director of Physical Plant, c/o Michigan Christian College, 800 West Avon Road, Rochester, MI 48063.

Alumna leaves for Haiti

Carol Speirs ('72) has changed plans regarding her service in medical missions work at Nigerian Christian Hospital (Summer MCC Bulletin). She left instead for CapHaitian, Haiti, Sept. 2.

After the first of the year, she plans to go to Ghana, West Africa, to complete her two years of service.

Anyone interested in such work may contact:

Baseball season ends

After only two weeks of practice, the Michigan Christian College baseball team opened its fall season with two disappointing, at-home losses to Concordia Lutheran College in Ann Arbor.

The team's first victory came when a tenth-inning single by sophomore Ken Jamison (Royal Oak) drove in freshman Dave Kirkpatrick (Swartz Creek) to break a 6-6 tie with St. Mary's College September 10. MCC lost the second game with St. Mary's 5-3.

Then after losing the first game in the September 17 double-header against Great Lakes Bible College, the Warriors defeated GLBC 11-1 in a game which featured 11 strikeouts by sophomore Ron Duguay (Howell). This put the team's record at 2 and 4.

After splitting the September 19 double-header with St. Mary's, the Warriors traveled to Parkersburg, West Virginia, September 21. There they dropped the first of two to Ohio Valley but bounced back with 14 hits and a win in the second game.

The team's final four games were played in Lansing against Kentucky Christian and GLBC September 27 and 28.

The Warriors lost the first of the four to Kentucky 6-3. In the second game, however, MCC slaughtered GLBC with 18 runs and 18 hits.

The team's chance for a .500 season ended with another loss to Kentucky Christian 5-2. Then in the final game of the season, the Warriors lost to GLBC despite the fact that 9 walks were issued to MCC.

The team's pitching was led by Duguay with 59 strikeouts and an ERA of 1.85.

Hitting was led by sophomore Dan Dill (Rochester) with a .529 batting average. Close behind him were freshmen Joey Tilton (Interlochen) with .350 and Alan Tyrrell (Madison Heights) with .314 and sophomore Dan Boren with .311.

Coach Bill Shinsky is looking forward to the 1986-87 school year when a return to spring ball is anticipated.

MCC BASEBALL TEAM: Kneeling—Lamont Brown (Detroit); Jerry Philpot (Detroit); Ken Jamison (Royal Oak); Marty Phillips (Clio); Joey Tilton (Interlochen); Larry Marsh (Ortonville). Standing—Jesse Espinoza, manager, (Adrian); David Kirkpatrick (Swartz Creek); Ron Duguay (Howell); Alan Tyrrell (Madison Heights); Dan Boren (Woodhaven); Darrell Morrow (Monroe); Karlton Turner (Montgomery, Texas); Dan Dill (Rochester Hills); Coach Bill Shinsky.

CROSS COUNTRY: Kneeling—David Buskirk (Warren); Demetric Washington (Detroit); Cheryl Ingersoll (Traverse City); Anthony Bodeker (Lakewood, Ohio); Suzanne Scott (Auburn Hills). Standing—Mr. Michael Light, coach; James Chinavare (Gibraltar); Kim Martin (Grabill, Indiana); Keith Martin (Grabill, Indiana); Sonja Barcus (Lima, Ohio); Tracy Osredkar (Vanderbilt); Bonnie Clayton (Cincinnati, Ohio). Not shown—David Krupinski (Warren).

Runners organized

This fall, for the first time since 1981, Michigan Christian College students had the opportunity to be on a cross country team.

Under the direction of admissions counselor Mr. Michael Light, the 12-member team participated in a combination of road races and intercollegiate invitational meets.

The push to have a team was spearheaded last spring by Tom Twigg (Michigan City, Indiana), an MCC sophomore. Several students were jogging regularly on campus but had no real direction.

Since Mr. Light is an avid racer who not only runs the six miles to and from work each day but also participates in several marathons yearly, the students asked him to help.

"I told them that if they wanted to do it, I'd be more than willing to coach," Mr. Light said. He urged those interested to take part in a running club last spring in order to get in shape and to develop an interest among other potential runners.

The results were surprising.

ONE OF the women, Bonnie Clayton (Cincinnati, Ohio), had never run before joining the team but ended up winning medals or trophies in four events. She was the only team member to place in both the September 7 5K road race at Madonna College and the September 15 5-mile Apple Amble, a road race in which runners could compete individually and as a team. Bonnie placed third in each race.

The runners next went against Oakland University at home September 17.

Then on September 28, in a 5K road race in Kensington Park in Milford, Bonnie placed first in her division while Suzanne Scott (Auburn Hills) placed third and Sonja Barcus (Lima, Ohio) fourth.

THE TEAM traveled to Angola, Indiana, October 5 for the Tri-State Classic, an invitational against 21 college men's teams and 13 women's teams.

Following this event was the October 19 Siena Heights Invitational in Adrian where runners competed against 16 men's teams and 14 women's.

The season ended with the October 26 Run for Reye's Syndrome road race in Novi, a race that also brought the most victories to the MCC team. In their respective divisions, David Buskirk (Warren) took first; Bonnie, first; Suzanne, second; Cheryl Ingersoll (Traverse City), third; and Keith Martin (Grabill, Indiana), third.

Mr. Light said he enjoyed his first season as coach and that he was sure the students felt a great sense of accomplishment in their running and in their improvement.

"WE HAD some good individual effort on the part of our runners, and many of them improved greatly over the season," Coach Light said. "I think it not only helped them, but it helped the school because everybody was excited about the accomplishments the runners made."

"I was glad to be a part of that excitement and feeling that I could help each individual runner to develop himself."

In Memory - Jacqueline Hardin

Jacqueline Hardin, 19, an MCC sophomore from Chicago, Illinois, died from a heart attack December 28, 1985.

Jackie was a cheerleader during her freshman year and an active member of the Kappa Kappa social club both this year and last. Her vibrant personality shined as she helped lead the club's members in its performance during the spring 1985 Celebration in Song. She also worked as an assistant in MCC's computer lab. Jackie is the daughter of Henry and Dorothy Hardin, members of the Harvey Church of Christ in Harvey, Illinois.
