SPRING 1988

Partnership Dinner XVII focuses on promise made by MCC founders

On May 7, 1988, Partnership Dinner XVII was held at Cobo Civic Center's Riverfront Ballroom. The Partnership Dinner campaign concept was begun in 1972, to retire the bonded indebtedness against the Alma Gatewood dormitory. The Dinner campaign has not only accomplished its original goal, but continues to assist in helping to underwrite the operational budget of the institution. Over 1,500 people attended the Dinner, which each year is viewed as a victory celebration of the Partnership Dinner campaign which begins earlier in the spring.

As has become the practice, the banquet meal was immediately followed by an inspiring devotional, during which prayers were led by Mr. Royce Dickinson, Chairman of the Michigan Christian College Board of Trustees; and Mr. Clarence Locke, one of the Partnership Dinner campaign regional chairmen. Mr. Ray Miller, Minister at the Parkside congregation in Dearborn Heights, read the 148th Psalm; and Mr. Charles Nelson, Artist in Residence at Abilene Christian University, led songs of praise.

The devotional was tollowed by the presentation of the "Alumnus of the Year" award to Mr. Richard L. (Rick) Watson by Mr. Phil McCullough, President of the MCC Alumni Association. Mr. Watson is a 1970 graduate of Michigan Christian College, and a 1972 graduate of Abilene Christian University. He was employed as Assistant to the President at Michigan Christian College from 1982 until 1986, at which time he returned to the field of mass communications in the television industry in Toledo, Ohio.

Special recognition was given by President Milton B. Fletcher to the Associates of Michigan Christian College, in honor of their having contributed their two millionth dollar during December, 1987. As a part of the recognition being given to all the Associates, each of the thirteen Presidents who were able to attend were presented a corsage. The highlight of the recognition of the Associates came when the President of MCC presented a beautiful plaque to current Associate President Margaret Hadfield, officially naming the largest building on campus the Associates' Campus Center.

Associate presidents present at the head table were: Mrs. El Meta Ford, Mrs. Vodie Kerr, Mrs. Bette Huckaby, Mrs. Mildred Freeland, Mrs. Wilma Lutz, Mrs. Catherine Sadurski, Mrs. Helen Slater, Mrs. Mary Utley, Mrs. Maxine Foster, Mrs. Gwen Orr, Mrs. Pat Harrison, Mrs. Benita Ward, and Mrs. Margaret Hadfield. Living presidents unable to be present were Mrs. Marietta Stowe, Mrs. Belle Parsons, and Mrs. Wilma McKeel. The only deceased president of the Associates is Mrs. Marie Carter.

The Partnership Dinner XVII Roll Call, honoring all regional chairmen, congregational chairmen, co-chairmen, team captains, workers and attendees, was delivered by Mr. Kent Hoggatt, campaign coordinator and Director of Church Relations.

Entertainment was furnished by the MCC A Cappella Chorus, directed by Mr. Joe Bentley; Mr. Charles Nelson, Artist in Residence at Abilene Christian University, accompanied by the chorus; and Mr. Bernard Leshley. Mr. Nelson began his professional career at the age of 15; when he was selected to sing in the North Texas State University A Cappella Chorus. Later, he completed two music de-grees, and performed as a baritone with a large number of music groups, including the Atlanta Symphony, the Nashville Symphony, the Dallas Symphony, the Arkansas Symphony, and the New Orleans Symphony. In addition to performing, Mr. Nelson has been active as a teacher and choral director in Texas public schools, David Lipscomb College, East Texas State University, and Abilene Christian University.

Following the musical presentation, Dr. Jim Mankin, Director for the Center for Christian Leadership at Abilene Christian University, inspired the audience with his address entitled "The Power of Promise." Dr. Mankin served as pulpit minister for the Central Church of Christ, in Cincinnati, Ohio; the Central Church of Christ, in Chattanooga, Tennessee; and the Madison Church of Christ, in Madison, Tennessee. In addition, he taught the televised "Amazing Grace Bible Class;" served as staff writer for Power for Today and the Gospel Advocate; served as editor for the Tennessee Valley edition of The Christian Chronicle; and has authored the book, Prescriptions for Troubled Hearts. Dr. Mankin is also co-director of the Blue Ridge Encampment in Asheville, North Carolina, and has appeared on the Bible Lectureships of all the brotherhood colleges.

Following Dr. Mankin's keynote address, an audiovisual presentation focused on the promise, made thirty years ago by the founders of Michigan Christian College, and the importance of continuing that promise for future generations. Following the audiovisual presentation, Mr. Rick Watson read the stirring words of the great hymn, "Standing on the Promises," which was followed by the benediction, led by Mr. Mark Brackney, the 1987-88 Student Body Association President.

Mr. Charles Nelson, Artist in Residence at Abilene Christian University, entertains Partnership Dinner XVII guests with the showtune "Old Man River."

Partnership Dinner XVII guests enjoy a time of fellowship before the meal is served.

Message from the President

Dear Friends:

Questions!—Legitimate questions!! What does it cost per year to operate Michigan Christian College?—Per Day?—What does it cost a student to attend? This particular Bulletin letter is not designed to be inspirational or philosophical, but rather to convey to you, the friends of Michigan Christian College, basic information and statistics about the operation. Occasionally, it seems wise to call to everyone's attention just how the institution operates in terms of organization, budgets, activities, and the like

On April 23, 1988, we presented the Board of Trustees our proposed 1988-89 operating budget totaling $2,649,732 for the 30th year of Michigan Christian College. It is interesting to note the consistency of budget figures for the eight years, beginning June 1, 1981, during which time inflation has accelerated in far greater proportion than the total budget increases shown below:

| 1981-82 | $2,281,650 |
|---------|-------------|
| 1982-83 | $2,129,200 |
| 1983-84 | $2,460,570 |
| 1984-85 | $2,440,243 |
| 1985-86 | $2,472,030 |
| 1986-87 | $2,578,100 |
| 1987-88 | $2,553,384 |
| 1988-89 | $2,649,732 |

These figures reflect a change in the annual budget totals from 1981-82 to 1988-89 of only $368,082, or a 16.13% increase over eight years.

It is also interesting to note that the 1988-89 operating budget requires a daily total of $7,260 per day, or $302 per hour (in round figures).

Each year it is necessary that we present a proposed budget to the Board of Trustees several months before the registration of students in the fall. The projected number of new students and the resulting earned income they generate is estimated, at best, on paid applications to date. Then, a reasonable formula is used to predict the number of returning students based primarily on what has happened in previous years. Gift income projections are made on the basis of specific gift programs and our previous successes in accomplishing these programs.

We are delighted that the institution has operated in the

We are delighted that the institution has operated in the "black" for the last seven consecutive years, during which time the debt has been drastically reduced to the extent that our total debt is approximately $200,000, of which about $100,000 is long-term. Also, in recent years, the thoughtful planning of several great friends has generated bequests to the Endowment Fund totaling slightly less than $1 million. Because God has blessed Michigan Christian College with generous friends, and due to concentrated efforts on the part of every employee, these positive results have been accomplished.

The most urgent challenge we face is declining enrollment. This is a national trend, consequently, we are not unique among colleges and universities. This commonly shared condition, however, isn't made easier by the sharing! With your help, we must convince more parents and prospective students that Christian education is a wonderfully viable option. It is a known fact that church growth has taken place across the years in the geographic areas immediately surrounding our various senior Christian colleges. We strongly believe that trend will become more prominent in the Midwest as the years slide by. In addition to being an educational institution serving students, Michigan Christian College is also dedicated to serving the congregations of the church of Christ in the North and Midwest. We solicit the cooperation of every person and every congregation to help Michigan Christian College serve more effectively.

Let's talk a little about what it costs a student to attend! The amount needed for a full-time, boarding student to attend Michigan Christian College is approximately $6,344 for the 1988-89 school year. About 75% of our students qualify for financial aid to cover up to 80% of the total cost, depending upon financial need. Michigan Christian College is the second least expensive private, higher education institution in the State of Michigan, with William Tyndale College in Farmington Hills charging slightly less. The other private colleges in Michigan are much more expensive than we are. Our student costs are at approximately the same level as those of the University of Michigan. Our sister junior Christian colleges are operating virtually at our student cost levels. We are positioned third from the least expensive Christian college in the brotherhood in terms of cost, namely, Southwestern Christian College. Oklahoma Christian College is just slightly less expensive than we are. It is interesting to note that the total cost for a full-time boarding student to attend Michigan Christian College would be approximately $9,400 if our great friends were not unselfishly giving consistently. Obviously, such a situation would drastically affect the ability of many students to attend. When we realize that fact, we become even more thankful and appreciative for our friends who regularly contribute to the institution. Certainly, you are making investments in the lives of people that will produce far greater dividends than we can imagine.

The unselfish friends of a private college do for it what tax payers do for the public educational institutions.

The 1988-89 budget calls for approximately 70% of the budget being funded by earned income (tuition, fees, room and board, bookstore, interest) with approximately 30% being funded by gifts and grants. Because enrollment is slightly down, and because budget expenditures cannot be reduced proportionately without damaging programs, and thus damaging enrollment, the gift income must, of necessity, be a little higher than normal. In the past, gift income has been running at 25% of the total budget.

Michigan Christian College was a dream in the minds of thousands of people many years ago. Those dreams have become realities that have blessed thousands of people — not only those students who have directly benefited, but those great people who made contributions to this cause. If we really believe Luke 6:38, we know that our cheerful and generous gifts to great causes will bless the giver far more than the recipient. It is interesting that the Bible contains no command to give that is not correspondingly followed by a promise to receive. Those blessings to the donor are not always measured in tangibles, but many times come to us in ways much more significant than things we see, taste, and touch.

We are just 11½ years from the beginning of the 21st century. In the year 2000, Michigan Christian College will begin her 41st year. It is exciting to think what the future holds, provided we do not take for granted that the institution will automatically continue. God blesses us in our endeavors when we exercise the ultimate stewardship in the use of our talents, our energy, our time, His word, and our resources. Thanks to each of you for your continued investments in the cause of Christian education!

Very sincerely,

Milton B. Fletcher

William Sayles selected as All-American

Warrior guard William Sayles, a sophomore from Detroit, has been selected for the NLCAA All-American team. Sayles will travel with the All-American team this summer, competing against club and national teams in Sweden, Finland, and the U.S.S.R.

On March 31, 1988, Mr. John Gross, a sportscaster from Channel 7, interviewed Sayles and basketball coach Garth Pleasant in the Michigan Christian College gymnasium. The session included general information on MCC's basketball program, with a focus on Sayles' outstanding record on the College's basketball team over the past two years. Sayles averaged 24 points per game—shooting 52% from the field and 48% from the 3-point range—and has already been approached by several NCAA Division I and II colleges.

Coach Pleasant, when asked about Sayles being chosen for such a team, stated, "William is very deserving of this honor. I feel very fortunate to have had an individual of William's talent and character in our program."

Partnership Dinner West gains even greater support in second year

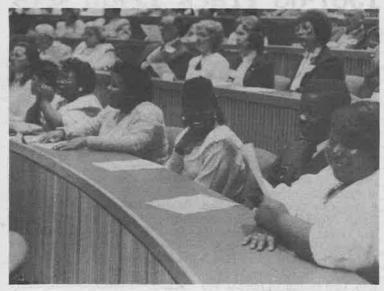

On May 13, 1988, in the Fetzer Business Development Center of Western Michigan University, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, Partnership Dinner West II was held. Over 270 people attended the Dinner, at which the donation fee was $50.00 for adults, and $25.00 for students.

Following the Dinner, which began at 7:30 p.m. in Fetzer Center, guests moved to the Kirsch Auditorium for the remainder of the program. Mr. Russ Holden, congregational chairman from the Grandville Church of Christ, began a short devotional with a prayer, after which Mr. Joe Ritchie, a member of the Holmes Road Church of Christ, in Lansing, Michigan, led the group in several hymns. Mr. Stanley Day, Minister at the Marshall Church of Christ, read to the group from a passage in Psalms, and Mr. Doug Doyle, Minister and congregational chairman at the North Kent Church of Christ, closed the devotional with a prayer.

The Partnership Dinner West II Congregational Roll Call, honoring congregational chairmen, co-chairmen, and their spouses, was delivered by Mr. Kent Hoggatt, campaign coordinator and Director of Church Relations.

Following the Congregational Roll Call, MCC President Milton B. Fletcher introduced Dr. Keith Stotts, President of Ohio Valley College, in Parkersburg, West Virginia. Dr. Stotts addressed the guests on the subject of "The Importance of Investing in Our Children's Future for Eternity."

Following Dr. Stotts' address, an audiovisual presentation focused on the promise made by the founders of Michigan Christian College, and the importance of continuing that promise of Christian education for the generations to come. Immediately following the audiovisual presentation, Mr. Allen Barber, Minister at the Portage, Michigan congregation read all stanzas of the hymn "Standing on the Promises," and Mr. Gary Davis, congregational chairman from the Laporte, Indiana Church of Christ concluded the program by leading the benediction.

A devotional in Kirsch Auditorium, on Western Michigan University's campus, provides further fellowship for Partnership Dinner West II attendees.

Men's Baseball Team has good season

The 1987-88 Men's Baseball Team, coached by Athletic Director Bill Shinsky, finished the season with a 7-15 record. All games were double-headers, and were played during a 1½ month period.

Freshman Chris Bies, of Erie, Michigan, led the team in hits with a .375 batting average. Bies also served as one of the team's pitchers.

Basemen included Ron Siegel, of Wyandotte, Michigan; Matt Patton, of Clio, Michigan; and Tony Burns, of Lake Orion, Michigan. Burns, an outstanding third baseman, was chosen to receive the "Mr. Hustle" Award.

Brian Cain, a sophomore from Amherst, Ohio served as the team's regular pitcher. Cain was chosen by his teammates as this year's Most Valuable Player (MVP).

Women's Softball Team finishes season with 6-4 record

The 1987-88 Women's Softball team finished the season with a 6-4 record. The twelvemember team played several doubleheaders against Nazareth College, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Madonna College, of Livonia, Michigan; and one doubleheader against Sienna Heights College, of Adrian, Michigan.

Joan Schihl led the team in batting with a .478 average; Jami Dye was second with a .440 batting average; Sue Aldrich had the third highest batting average at .406; and Alicia Evans completed the list of top batters with a .391 average. Outstanding RBI hitters were Joan Schihl and Alicia Evans.

Sue Aldrich, Alicia Evans, and Joan Schihl were the leading fielders, while Julie Vaughu, recipient of the first Peggy Matthews Outstanding Female Christian Athlete Award, excelled as the team's catcher. Vaughn, a sophomore from Clio, Michigan, also participated in the Women's Basketball program.

Susan Lambert, a freshman from Indianapolis, Indiana, displayed great athletic talent and versatility in her roll as the team's only pitcher. Voted MVP for both the 1987-88 Women's Basketball and Softball teams, Lambert also participated in the Women's Volleyball program.

Miss Karen Owen, coach for the team in her first year, was assisted by student manager Marty Phillips. According to Coach Owen, team captains Alicia Evans and Tracy Washburn exemplified the Christian attitude and cooperative spirit typical of the rest of this year's team. Miss Owen stated, "a good attitude is as important on the field as athletic ability, and this year's softball team had both." Coach Owen feels that, with the probability of nine returning players, the potential for next year's team looks good.

Dan Beaudoin rounds the track in the final stretch of a race.

1987-88 Track Team sets new school records

The 1987-88 Michigan Christian College Track Team, coached by Mr. Michael Light, finished its second season by setting several new school records. A total of 6 men, and 2 women, competed in 4 indoor and 3 outdoor meets.

New records, set at various meets, included shot put throws of 39 feet 4½ inches and 30 feet 8 inches by Mark Denzler and Patty Meadows, respectively; and long jump competition scores of 19 feet 7¾ inches and 11 feet 9 inches by Terry House and Christine Haffner. In addition, Dan Beaudoin ran the 400 meter dash in 52.3 seconds; George Barlow ran the 50 yard dash in 5.48 seconds; Kevin Bogg ran the 800 meter dash in 2 minutes 10.9 seconds; and Tom Twigg ran the 1000 yard race in 3 minutes 40.4 seconds. Kevin Bogg, Randy Haynes, Anthony Satterwhite, and Dan Beaudoin also ran an outstanding race in the 440 relay with their time of 3 minutes 50.46 seconds.

According to Coach Light, track is becoming more of an individual sport than a team effort. Team scores are no longer tallied, at the end of a meet. In reference to this year's running Warrior team, Coach Light states, "I worked with many strong individual runners, who used their talents to full potential."

MCC Annual Fund Dinners held in Dayton and Cincinnati

On April 14, 1988, President Milton B. Fletcher, Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher, and Mr. Kent Hoggatt, Director of Church Relations, attended the fifth Annual Fund Dinner for the College at the Red Lobster in Dayton, Ohio. Dr. Fletcher updated 101 guests on the "State of the College." Mr. Jerry Tallman, Minister at the Rochester Church of Christ, then spoke to the group on the value of Christian education. This fifth Annual Fund Dinner was a success in drawing additional support for the College from area Christians.

On April 15, the fifth Annual Fund Dinner for the Cincinnati area was conducted at Zino's Restaurant in Milford, Ohio, a suburb of Cincinnati. Fiftysix guests heard the "State of the College" address. Jerry Tallman again spoke on the importance of keeping Christian education available for the generations to come. A group of six singers from the Laurel Avenue Church of Christ, under the direction of Bob Davison, sang several hymns for the group. The evening closed with a devotional.

Board members hold annual dinner to honor employees

On April 22, 1988, Michigan Christian College Board members, College employees, and their spouses attended the seventh annual Employee Appreciation Dinner. Held at the Rivercrest Banquet Hall, in Rochester Hills, Michigan, the dinner enabled Board members to fellowship with, and acknowledge the efforts of, employees at the College.

Following the meal, Dr. Howard Hagerman, a member of the Board of Trustees, commended employees on another productive school year. Mr. Dave Cole, Associate Professor in the Science department, then addressed the group on the motivating factors behind the decision to work in Christian educa-

Under the direction of piano instructor Mr. Bernard Leshley, six members of the administration, faculty, and staff provided a short musical program. Mr. Joe Bentley, director of the A Cappella Chorus, also sang several show tunes. Closing the entertainment period, Mr. Leshley led the entire group in a sing-a-long.

1988 B.R.E. graduate recommends MCC Bible Program

My name is Joseph Patris and I'm a recent B.R.E. graduate of Michigan Christian College. Prior to my enrollment at M.l.i I was privaledged to complete eight years of higher education leading to a professional career in health case, so my life progressed of was bleased with the truth of the Supel and busin a Christian. at one I realyed the need to become biblially educated and envolled at M.C. I can honeetly say attending M.C.C was one of the best educational experiences of have ever had. The teacher at M.C.C are everptioned, The B. R. S department has three of the best professors/ spiritual leaders that die ever had. These men are highly adminted all having their Phol in specific biblish areas and most importantly all possess an open mind, at M.C.C you not only receive a strong acedemic education but in addition a strong epintual education. The student to teacher notes is exceptional, allowing for close personal attention. The faculty and staff are extremely concerned for each student ensuring the first education possible. I highly recommend Michigan Christian College and encourage you to attend. If you would like to can text me personally please feel free.

Finally, Chairman of the Board Royce Dickinson, and board members Ron Jones, Robert Benham, Jim Thomas, and Lawrence Watson, pre-sented plaques to several employees, for outstanding achievement. Dean Leonard Knight, Dr. Fawn Knight, Mr. Kent Hoggatt, and Dean Garth Pleasant were honored for ten consecutive years of service at the College. Miss Edie Wallace, a biology instructor, received the award for outstanding faculty member, while Miss Karen Owen, Administrative Assistant in the Development Office, was honored as the year's out-

British art and manuscripts displayed in library

An exhibit of early 19th Century European art and manuscripts was featured in Michigan Christian College's Muirhead Library between January 19 and February 8, 1988. Kiosks, containing reproductions of works from the Romantic Period, were set up in the Library's main reading room. The Michigan Council for the Humanities, under the auspices of Rutgers University and the National Endowment tor the Humanities, is distributing these British paintings and rare manuscripts in various institutions throughout Michigan as part of a larger project touring the United States this year. Michigan Christian College was privileged to be the first place in Michigan to display this exhibit. One of the most unique things about this project is that it makes available to American audiences art works which could not be readily viewed, even in the British Isles, since they come from a number of institutions and private collections across the United Kingdom.

Over the weekend of April 22-23, a group of students and faculty traveled to the Chicago

Historical Society to view the complete exhibit. This field trip was part of an inter-disciplinary course entitled "Survey of the Romantic Period," which included units on the philosophy, history, art, music, and liter-ature of this time frame. Instructors participating in this course were Dr. Leo Hindsley, of the History department; Miss Gale Edwards, of the Art department; Mr. Joe Bentley, of the Music department; and Dr. Fawn Knight, of the English department.

Hostesses and Cast "Celebrate Travelin"

On April 8-9, 1988, the annual production of "Celebration" was performed in the Westside Central Chapel of MCC's campus. Large crowds gathered each evening to enjoy the talents and enthusiasm of over 100 students who participated in the progam. Under the direction of Miss Gale Edwards, Michigan Christian College's drama instructor, and Mr. Joe Bentley, A Cappella director, four hostesses, three social club units, and the Celebration Singers performed skits and songs about various modes of travel.

The Celebration Singers, a group of 38 students, began the show with the musical number "Oklahoma." Later the singers returned to the stage wearing bandanas, floppy straw hats, and overalls to join the hostesses in a medley of "The Banana Boat Song," and "Chiquita Banana."

Social Clubs Alpha and Kappa Tau sang about traveling "Around the World in 80 Ways" in their spoof about a starcrossed couple who kept meeting in exotic places around the world. Club members donned bermuda shorts, bright sunglasses, and aloha shirts as they shouted out verses of "All Over the World," "Summer Sights," and "Time Flyin'."

Alpha Beta and Beta Gamma, dressed as hobos, sang about the experience of "Life in the Fast Train." As their box car rolled along, club members sang tunes such as "It's a Hobo's Life for Us," and "There's No Life Like a Hobo's Life"

Delta Nu and Sigma Phi staged a take-off on Dorothy and "The Wizard of Oz" in "Dorothy and the Land of Travel." This version portrayed Dorothy as a street-wise kid from Detroit who had landed in Oz after an auto accident in her pink cadillac. The lion, scarecrow, tin man, good witch, and a group of Munchkins tried several modes of transportation to find a way for Dorothy to return to Detroit, but finally had to rely on the Wizard to fix the car in which Dorothy had come to Oz. Taking first place in the competition, club members sang "The Munchkin Motion," "Hey, Hey, We're the Airplanes," and "Get MAACO."

This year's hostesses added an appealing dimension to the production with melodic fourpart harmony in featured musical numbers "Route 66," "Sail Away on a Song," "Swinging on a Star," and "Chattanooga Choo-Choo." Sophomore Ady Hutchins, a music major from Wellington, Ohio, contributed a rich, alto sound to the ensemble. Ady has taken piano and voice lessons for several years, and plans to someday teach music. Tracy Washburn, a sophomore from Washington,

Michigan, combined dramatic talent with a clear soprano voice in the short skits which showcased the hostess' songs. Tracy has participated in many activities on campus, including A Cappella Chorus and the drama group "Company," and plans to later pursue an acting Linda Sattison, also a sophomore, was the third hostess. A native of Angola, Indiana, Linda has performed with A Cappella Chorus for two years, and sings alto and soprano. Expressing the honor she felt at being chosen a Celebration Hostess, Linda stated, "I really enjoyed the excitement that Celebration generates among the students. I was quite surprised at how easily our numbers came together. Working with the other three hostesses was more fun than work." final hostess was Julie Wilson, a freshman from Rochester, Indiana. Julie, also a member of the A Cappella Chorus, is an outstanding vocalist. Music is a hobby for Julie, but one to which she enjoys devoting much of her time. Summing up the feeling of being involved with "Celebration" for the first time, Julie commented, "The energy of each performer is really incredible. At first it seems as if the show will never come together, but everyone pulls together at the end and produces a great show.

Delta Nu/Sigma Phi club members gather around director Dee Frazier, and the Celebration Trophy.

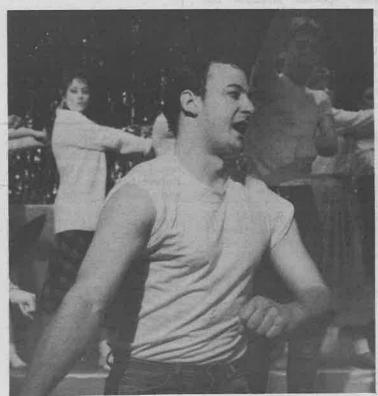

Lori Northcutt, Jim Truex, and Christine Campbell act out a song in a Kappa/Alpha Tau skit.

Hostesses Julie Wilson, Linda Sattison, Tracy Washburn, and Ady Hutchins concoct a brew which will enable them to "Swing on a Star."

Tamera Robrock and Mitzi Holland, in Alpha Beta/Beta Gamma's skit, weigh the advantages and disadvantages of the hobo life.

Pete Sexton "hams it up" during a Celebration Singers number.

A Cappella and Autumn

The 1987-88 Michigan Christian College A Cappella Chorus, along with the eight-member group Autumn, performed in several Midwestern states throughout the school year. Highlights included concerts in Valparaiso, Indiana; Chicago, Illinois; and Holland and Lansing, Michigan.

As part of their Winter Tour, the Chorus traveled to Oklahoma Christian College to participate in the Annual Christian College Choral Festival. Nine choral groups from seven col-leges also participated. The MCC A Cappella Chorus per-formed "Sing Ye Righteous," by Lodorico Viadena; "Wherefore Hath the Light Been Granted," by Johannes Brahams; and "Go and Tell John," by Lloyd Pfautsch. According to A Cappella Director Joe Bentley, it was a valuable experience for the group to perform with so many other talented singers under the direction of renowned musician Mr.

Rodney Eichenberger. Performances were held on the way back in Terre Haute, Indiana;

Springfield, Missouri; Wichita,

Kansas; and Bloomington, Illinois. Upon returning to the Detroit area, the group participated in a choral festival with the Metro Detroit Youth Chorus.

A performance at the Oakland County Lincoln-Republican Club's 99th Annual Lincoln Dinner, in February of 1988, was a special treat for the Chorus. Singers performed "America the Beautiful," "The National Anthem," and "America, The Dream Goes On," for guests at the dinner. A speech delivered by Senator Henry Hyde, of Illinois, followed the performance. "I'm excited that A Cappella had this opportunity to perform for a local community group," stated Mr. Bentley. "In my eyes, it's positive exposure for the College.

On May 7th, the A Cappella Chorus accompanied Mr. Charles Nelson, of the Abilene Christian University Music Department, in several selections performed for Partnership Dinner XVII guests, at Detroit's Cobo Civic Center. Following the performance, the group left for their Spring Tour which included concerts in Canada, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and various cities in Michigan.

MCC has been notified by various families that six burial plots in the Company performs four plays

Three one-act plays and a fullscale production were per-formed this year by MCC's drama troupe "Company". The one-act plays, chosen by drama director Gale Edwards, were "Take the Second Pyramid On The Left This Side Of The Nile," by Christina Hamlett; The Neglected Husband's Sewing Club," by Peg Lynch; and "Mountaintop," by Bob Hughes. "Mountaintop, only one-act with a religious theme, was particularly well received by audiences. Its storyline involved a comparison of Abraham's intended sacrifice of Isaac, to God giving His son for the salvation of the world. The spring production of Neil Si-mon's "Star Spangled Girl" played to local audiences in the Westside Central Chapel, March 3-4, 1988. Traveling with Admissions Counselor Pam Colglazier, the players performed for audiences at the Bedford, Indiana, Youth Rally, a Michigan Christian Youth Camp winter session, the Oakland Family Services Holiday Banquet, and a Liberty Christian Academy fund raising dinner. In addition, plays were presented at Great Lakes Christian College and youth rallies in Syracuse, New York, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The group's Spring Tour in March covered several Midwestern states. Performances were given at Michigan Christian Youth Camp, Schultz-Lewis Children's Home, Indianapolis Christian High School, Liberty Christian Academy, the Michigan Youth Conference, and in Michigan City, Indiana.

Company members are selected in open auditions at the beginning of the fall term. Students selected to participate in this year's Company were Jim Isenberg, Keith Martin, Kali Ponder, Earl Bain, Tracy Washburn, Shannon Dickerson, Kris-Ockerman, Gar Liebler, Sandi Waltman, and Jim Truex.

Jog-o-thon successful in third year

The 1987-88 Michigan Christian College Jog-o-thon was held at the Macomb Community College Field House, on February 13, 1988. On March 10, 1988, an extension of Jog-o-thon was held on the campus of Eastern Michigan University. Nineteen members of the Ypsilanti Church of Christ participated.

Beginning at 2:10 p.m., on February 13, participants ran, jogged, or walked around a 1/8 mile track for an hour. Two center lanes were assigned to experienced runners, while outer lanes were designated for those wishing to jog or walk at a more relaxed pace. Following the run, in the Registration area, laps were recorded and refreshments served. Goal laps for men and women were 40 and 32, respectively. Participants who achieved these goal laps were awarded a sourvenir mug bearing the name and date of the run.

Mr. Mike Light, admissions counselor and track coach at MCC, led the group with 72 laps. A student at Michigan Christian College, William Morrison, finished second with 63 laps. Miss Lizzy Ikeji, parttime science instructor at the College, set the record for women with 61 laps.

Mr. Duane Harrison, Advisory Board member, assisted by his committee of volunteers, coordinated the event. Mrs. Pat Harrison served as the contact person for area Associates groups, while Mr. Bert Bryan and his wife Ann were responsible for organizing registration and refreshments.

This fund raising activity, previously sponsored by the MCC Men's Club, became a project of the College in, this, its third year. More than $30,000 in pledges were raised by over 190 participants.

Carole Hopkins goes for one more lap around the track, during Jogothon.

MCC employees support the efforts of the College, while enjoying fellowship with each other.

MCC sponsors Christian Ministries Workshops in Dayton and Ontario

The 63rd Michigan Christian College Christian Ministries Workshop was held at the Northridge Church of Christ in Dayton, Ohio, on February 27, 1988. A crowd of 205 participants, representing 24 congregations, attended. The following weekend, 290 people attended the 64th workshop at Great Lakes Christian College in Ontario, Canada.

Held six to eight times annually, these workshops were begun to further train Christians in congregations throughout the Midwest who wished to revitalize their Bible school programs and sharpen their skills in various Christian ministries. The workshops also include general classes aimed at enriching the lives of Christians. They are free of charge and open to participants of high school age and above.

Classes aimed primarily at improving church educational programs were "Exciting Pre-School Classes," "Teaching Primaries," "Evangelizing With Your VBS," "Singing With Children," "Christ in the Teenager," "Teaching Ladies' Classes," and "Bible School Curriculum and Supervision."

Workshop sessions offered this year included: "Preparing for Life's Crises," "Communication With God," "Mobilizing Talents in a Local Congregation," "Restoring the Unfaithful," "A Biblical Basis for Parenting," "The Home as God Designed It," "Handling Stress," "Motivating Others," "Making Worship More Meaningful," "Ministering to the Alone," and "The Goldenagers Ministries."

Classes and workshop sessions were taught by President and Mrs. Milton B. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Hoggatt, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stewart, Dr. and Mrs. Steve Eckstein, Mr. Mike Light, Mr. and Mrs.

Bill Hufstedler, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pugh, Mr. Glenn Gleim, Mrs. Lee Herren, Mr. and Mrs. David Walker, and Ms. Jerri Locke.

These workshops provide insight into teaching techniques for all ages and preparation for issues faced daily by Christians. Congregations wishing to host a Christian Ministries Workshop should contact Mr. Kent Hoggatt, Director of Church Relations, at 313-651-5800, ext. 19.

Administrators and faculty evaluate College's academic programs through self-study process

As Michigan Christian College approaches 1989, select faculty and administrators are hard at work on the crucial selfstudy document required for renewed accreditation. The selfstudy is a lengthy written eval-uation of curriculum, goals, and resources prepared by the College itself. It is the basis for the North Central Association team's evaluation of the College's programs, to be conducted in the Spring of 1989. This accreditation visit is particularly important because the College is developing its business program so that a Bachelor of Business Administration degree may even-tually become available to Michigan Christian College students.

In connection with the selfstudy and development of the Bachelor of Business Administration degree program, President Milton Fletcher and Dean Leonard Knight have made visits to the State Department of Education's liaison office in Lansing, Michigan, and to the North Central Association's annual conference in Chicago. The visit to Lansing resulted in a tentative plan for the Committee of Scholars representing the State Board of Education to come to campus during the Fall, 1988, semester. The State visit will be followed, in March, 1989, by a visiting team from the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Each of the evaluation teams will provide the College with direction on the continued development of the business program.

The loss of a great man — Cyrus Addams

On May 1, 1988, Cyrus Addams, a faithful member of the Michigan Christian College Board of Trustees since January, 1983, passed away after a brief battle with cancer. He is survived by his wife, Betsy; two daughters, Janice Babcock and Katherine Whiteside; a son, James; and six grandchildren.

Mr. Addams retired in 1985 from Vulcan Materials Company where he served as President of their Midwest Division. He was formerly employed with Marblehead Lime Company as an executive, as well as the Mississippi Lime Company. During World War II, he was a captain with the 80th Infantry Division, and was awarded the Silver Star and two Bronze Stars for heroism, as well as the Purple Heart with cluster. He also served as an elder of the Park Forest congregation in Matteson, Illinois, just outside Chicago.

President Fletcher made this observation: "Cyrus Addams was a great and loyal friend of Michigan Christian College and of young people in general. He was unselfish, considerate; he was a man of action and few words. When he spoke, he was decisive. He was perceptive and could get to the core of problems quickly, and lead others in reaching solutions. We honor Cy Addams, and we will miss him. Our prayers are with his lovely wife, Betsy, and with his children and grandchildren, all of whom will miss him even more."

Laura Day crowned 1987-88 Homecoming Queen

A pizza party, alumni chapel service, performance by Autumn, basketball game against the Ohio Valley Scots, and formal banquet were some of the highlights of MCC's 29th Homecoming.

On February 6, 1988, Court members made their traditional half-time walk around the gym floor. President Milton B. Fletcher then took the floor and introduced Laura Day, of Marshall, Michigan, as the 1987-88 Homecoming Queen.

Laura's reaction was one of surprise and excitement. "I've never even been on a homecoming court before," she stated. "I was pleased just to be chosen as a candidate for queen. I'll remember this moment always.' Her parents and sister Sherri. also an MCC student, were on hand to share the sweet moment of victory. Laura was escorted by Jim Goodin, of Berkley, Michigan.

A Resident Assistant in Alma Gatewood dormitory, Laura was also active with the Student Body Association, as Executive Council Treasurer. In addition, she was a member of A Cappella, Autumn, Alpha Tau, and the yearbook production staff. Laura plans to return to MCC in the fall to obtain an Associate degree. She will then transfer to Oklahoma Christian College to work towards a degree in Elementary Educa-cessing major from Bedford, Indiana, was selected as a member of the Court for the second year. She was escorted by Kevin Galloway, of LaPorte, Indiana. The daughter of former MCC Dean of Students David Fields. Davena feels that there was no other place to begin her college career, but MCC.

The Bedford, Indiana native enjoyed her activities in Women's Club, Alpha Tau, and A Cappella Chorus, these past two years.

Elementary Education major Linda Sattison, also a secondyear representative, was escorted by Mark Brackney. A native of Hudson, Indiana, Linda has participated in a wide variety of activities, including A Cappella Chorus, Autumn, Alpha Tau, and Women's Club. She has also been a Resident Assistant in Campus Center dormitory, and served as sophomore class secretary. A versatile vocalist, who sings soprano and alto, Linda was chosen as one of this year's Celebration

Freshman Becky Kreh was escorted by Joey Tilton, of Interlochen, Michigan. The daughter and sister of MCC alumni, Becky states, "I wanted to come to a place which would hold some familiarity, but would also give me the experience of moving away from home." Becky was on the Dean's List first semester and was active in A Cappella and Alpha Tau. She also served as sophomore class vice-president and worked in the Academic Dean's office. A Nursing major, from Searcy, Arkansas, she plans to transfer to Harding University in the fall.

Julie Wilson, also a Fresh man, is a Secretarial Science major from Rochester, Indiana. A talented singer, Julie has performed with A Cappella and Autumn, and as a hostess in this year's Celebration. In addition to her work in the Academic Dean's office, she was a member of Alpha Tau and the Food Committee. She was escorted by Jim Haferkamp.

Candlebearers, chosen by their peers, provided a path for Court members and their escorts. Included in this group were Gerald Baker (San Francisco, California); Reggie Best (Detroit, Michigan); Chris Bies (Erie, Michigan); Victor Bliss (Traverse City, Michigan); Kevin Cartwright (Flatrock, Michigan); Jim Craig (Morenci, Michigan); Andre Harris (Chicago, Illinois); Pete Sexton (Attica, Michigan); Dane Tate (Traverse City, Michigan); and Jim Truex (Dearborn, Michigan).

Festivities came to a close, that evening, with the Homecoming banquet in the cafeteria. Mr. Rick Watson, MCC class of 1970, spoke to students, employees, and alumni on the importance of "Making Your Memories Now."

Lady Warriors have improved second season

The 1987-88 Lady Warriors finished their second season with a 4-15 record, a considerable improvement over last year's 0-7 season. The cagers were victorious over Ft. Wayne Bible College, at the February 6, 1988 Homecoming game, with a final score of 41-38. Earlier in the season, the Lady Warriors beat the Ft. Wayne team, in Indiana. In addition, they defeated William Tyndale College two times.

MCC Bulletin

Other competitors included junior colleges Madonna, Lansing Community, Kalamazoo Valley, Highland Park, Concordia Lutheran, Great Lakes Christian, Alpena Community, and Delta. Four-year schools played were Tyndale, Adrian College, and Sienna Heights College. The 19-game season, as opposed to last year's seven games, offered team players greater opportunity to improve skills and function as a unified group.

Freshman Susan Lambert, a guard from Indianapolis. Indiana, was the team's leading scorer with an average of 13 points per game. Shawn Winski, of Troy, Michigan, was a close second with an average of 12 points per game. Leading rebounders were center Susan Price (Delton, Michigan) and forward Jami Dye (Washington Court House, Ohio). Completing the Lady Warrior team were Sherry Hall (Cutler, Ohio); Shelly McDaniel (Flint, Michigan); Julie Vaughn (Clio, Michigan); Tracy Washburn (Washington, Michigan); Veronica Mott (Detroit, Michigan); and Laura Baker (Columbus, Ohio).

According to Coach Kent Wieb, the highlight of this second year was the Christian spirit exemplified in each of his ten players, on and off the court.

Of the eight freshmen, four plan to return to the team next year. Weib looks to next season's potential and states. with the return of experienced players and the probability of several new outstanding athletes, I'm excited about the potential for next year's team.

Warriors travel to NLCAA Tournament for seventh year

The Michigan Christian Col-Warriors finished the 1987-88 season with a 22-8 record. Seeded first in the North Central District, the team competed against number-two ranked Jordan College for a berth in the National Little College Athletic Association (NLCAA) finals. The Warriors lost the District game to the Suns, but were given an at-large bid to the NLCAA Finals in light of their season record and past performances in this Tournament. The cagers traveled to Madison, Wisconsin for the NLCAA Tournament, but lost to Lindsey-Willson College, of Columbia, Kentucky, in the first round.

Leading the Warriors in scoring this season was 6'2" guard William Sayles. The former All-Stater from Harper Woods, Michigan averaged 24 points per game. In addition, Sayles shot 52% from the field and 48% from the 3-point range. Freshman Eric Vaughn (Saginaw Valley, Michigan), also an

All-Stater, averaged 6.6 rebounds and 6.7 assists per game. Also contributing to the team's high scoring percentage was Jackie McLaurin, a 6'5" forward from Flint, Michigan. Jackie averaged 14 points and 6 rebounds per game. Sophomore Matt Patton (Clio, Michigan) and Greg Garrett (Indianapolis, Indiana) averaged 11 and 10 points, respectively, per game. Completing the Warrior team were Troy Rusnell (Lake Orion, Michigan); Joe Williams (Davison, Michigan); James Middleton (Elkhart, Indiana); Chris Bies (Erie, Michigan); Maurice Harris (Detroit, Michigan); Michael Forrest (Detroit, Michigan); Keith Powell (Detroit, Michigan); and Jason Walker (Auburn Hills, Michi-

Coach Garth Pleasant stated, "The Warriors' work ethic and balance in their mental approach and fundamental play contributed to Michigan Christian College's success on the

Matching Gift List

Multiply the dollars you give to Michigan Christian College!

Triple it—or more!

That's right...you can literally double the dollar value of your gift to the college or university of your choice if you work for one of the firms listed in this leaflet, or many of their divisions, subsidiaries, or affiliated companies.

All of the companies listed will match your gift to four-year colleges and universities. Use the key to determine if your company will match gifts to other higher education institutions as well.

To make your match, simply obtain a form from your company's Matching Gift Coordinator (usually in the personnel or community relations department) and send it along with your gift to the institution you choose. Your company's Matching Gift Coordinator can also answer any further questions you may have about this

It's possible that your company has a matching gift program even if it is not listed here. Why not ask?

It's as easy as it sounds, so make your dollars double by taking advantage of your company's Matching Gift Program today. After all, America's Energy is Mindpower. Join in partnership with your company in support of America's greatest resource.
