A Cappella Chorus completes extended tour in Northeast

History came alive for members of the MCC Chorus as they visited such cities as Boston, Philadelphia, New York, and Washington, D.C. on their recent May 8-22 spring tour. The tour included sixteen performances in Michigan, Ontario, New York, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Ohio.

Near the beginning of their tour, the chorus performed at Great Lakes Christian College in Beamsville, Ontario. The following day allowed time for several hours in Niagara Falls. A tour of the Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester highlighted the next day.

After arriving on the East Coast, the group spent a morning exploring the old coastal town of Marblehead, Massachusetts. They then drove into Boston for a tour of the U.S.S. Constitution and the "Old North Church," where Paul Revere had lights placed to signal the beginning of the Revolutionary War.

A ferry ride to the Statue of Liberty highlighted a Saturday stop in New York City. The next afternoon allowed for a tour of Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia. Before leaving the nation's capitol on Tuesday, the group visited the Capitol Building, Lincoln Memorial, and Jefferson Memorial.

As the chorus drove down Rochester Road toward campus on May 22, a spontaneous verse of the MCC Alma Mater filled the bus. Although the group had a tremendous time in a lot of exciting places, it was great to be back home.
