

New Author Writes To Defend Christian Faith

5-7

Darrell Holt, a native of Greenville, MS, but now preaching for the North Central Church of Christ in Flint, Michigan has just released a new book, Muhammed Is Dead. The book is an excellent review of the Muslim religion and exposes the many contradictions between it and the Christian religion as revealed in the New Testament.

Brother Holt, decided to write the book after the North Central congregation in Flint, Michigan held a public dialogue between Christianity and Islam in April of 1998. The book, Muhammed Is Dead was written to raise the consciousness of all Christians in Islamic thought and literature. Many of the contradictions and fallacies of the Quran are exposed by Brother Holt.

Islam claims that one fifth of the world's population is Islamic in faith. The book offers a striking contrast between Christ and Muhammed, the Quran and the Bible, and Islamic beliefs compared with biblical teachings.
