

The Clawson Young People

Holiday Banquet at Clawson Honors Group's Young People

CLAWSON, Mich. — On December 21, 1962, the ladies of the Clawson church honored their young people of the junior and senior high school classes with a Holiday banquet. It was the first such banquet ever sponsored by the Clawson ladies, and it was highly successful, with about 36 young people attending, not all of which were present in time to be included in the picture.

The room and table were beautifully decorated with appropriate color scheme for the season, and all had a wonderful time.

The evening menu included ham, sweet potatoes, green beans, corn, baked beans, and tossed salad, with cake and ice cream for dessert. The red punch added to the gala colors in the banquet hall.

Following the dinner, a brief address was given by R. C. Oliver; afterwards, Rupert

Smith, through the courtesy of The Ford Motor Company, showed four moving pictures, the most impressive of which were "The River of no Return," and "High Road."

The events of the evening lasted from 6:30 to 10:30 and a wonderful spirit prevailed, which is but a reflection of the excellent spirit that now characterizes every department of work at the Clawson church of Christ.
