Dear New Member Policy Group colleagues:

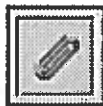

Thanks for your time this morning. Here is my understanding of our discussion and agreements:

1) Review draft report. The attached draft 3 reflects my understanding of the agreements we agreed on today. It also includes comparisons of costs for three prospective new members with collections ranging from 25,000 to 100,000 volumes. Upon reflection, how do these figures look now? We can discuss this during our next conference call on 4 September.

2) Next steps. Dee and Scott agreed to prepare a flow chart depicting the new member approach, then send it to us for review. We'll discuss it at next week's meeting, along with draft 3 of the committee's report. A draft cover letter for our report will follow.

3) Upcoming conference calls. As background for our next meeting, from 10 AM until Noon on 4 September, I'm enclosing the new member checklist, per our discussion. Our other upcoming meeting is as follows:
