WINTER 1989

Following a morning Chapel service, Coach Michael Light presents Olaf Meier with an NLCAA All American Team medal.

Cross Country Team Wins Second Place at NLCAA Nationals

The 1988-89 Cross Country Team, coached by Mr. Michael Light, finished the season with

sota. Despite harsh conditions, the team finished the competition in Second Place. Team members included captain Kevin Bogg, of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan; Randy Haynes, of Bellwood, Illinois; Olaf Meier, of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan; Mickey Puckett, of Webberville, Michigan; Scott Reece, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; and Derrick Wade, of Pontiac, Michigan.

In addition to the team's Second Place standing in the Finals, Meier and Reece finished the race first and eighth, individually. Meier was named to the NLCAA Cross Country All American Team.

Throughout the September 10 - October 29 season, the runners competed in five-mile races at Alpena Community College, Hope College, Sienna Heights College, and in Saginaw, Michigan. In addition, they participated in the Manchester Invitational, the Spring Arbor Invitational, and the Rochester Apple Amble.

Coach Light is enthusiastic about the team's accomplishments and individual running times throughout the season. With possibly four runners returning to the men's team, and several talented prospects lined up for a 1989-90 women's team, Light foresees the Cross Country program growing to become a fundamental part of the College's overall sports program.

Kevin Bogg, Scott Reece, Mickey Puckett, and Randy Haynes prepare for an upcoming meet with a brisk run throughout MCC's beautiful wooded areas.

Message from the President

Dear Friends:

Some interesting statistics have recently been developed by Mr. Larry Stewart, Director of Admissions, dealing with the location of Michigan Christian College Alumni family units.

There have been approximately 4,800 students who have attended Michigan Christian College since she began in 1959-60. Unfortunately, the Alumni records haven't been maintained as diligently as they should have been. Consequently, we have addresses on only 2,457 Alumni family units, many of whom represent two Alumni because of marriages. I thought it would be interesting for you to see the statistics regarding these people who reside in 46 of the 50 states. States not represented are Idaho, Iowa, Montana, and Nevada. Fortunately, 55% of the Alumni on our address list are living in Michigan; 70% of the Alumni reside in the Midwestern states of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois; 15% of the total list live in the states where our senior Christian colleges are located, namely, Texas, Tennessee, Oklahoma, California and Arkansas. Probably the reasons that 15% live in those five states relate to the fact that they transferred from Michigan Christian College to one of our senior colleges, probably married in the South, Southwest, or West and remained there in permanent residence. We are delighted that those areas are benefiting from these good families, but we also regret that they are no longer in the congregations in the Midwest. This circumstance highlights why it is important that Michigan Christian College add more four-year degree programs to our curriculum as rapidly as is healthy and feasible. When 15% of our own Alumni are lost to the Midwest, it's frightening to estimate how many of those enrolling as freshmen in out-of-state institutions never return to the Midwest as residents.

By the time you read this letter, we will have submitted our formal proposal to the State Board of Education for authorization to offer our second four-year degree known as the Bachelor of Business Administration. A Committee of Scholars from other Michigan colleges and universities will be appointed by the State Board of Education to visit our campus, hopefully in early 1989, for the purpose of evaluating our ability to offer the proposed new Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

With this Bulletin, we plan to survey our clientele to determine your feelings about Christian education in the North Central and Midwestern sections of this great country. Please complete the questions listed below and return to my office at 800 West Avon Road, Rochester Hills, Michigan 48063. We would deeply appreciate your responding so as to help plan for the future of Michigan Christian College. Questions are as follows:

1. In what state do you reside? _____
2. If you have children living at home who are age 25 or younger, what are their exact ages? _____
3. Are any of your children enrolled in a college identified with the churches of Christ? YES NO
4. Are you currently enrolled in a college identified with the churches of Christ? YES NO
5. Did you attend a two-year college identified with the churches of Christ? YES NO
6. Did you attend a four-year college identified with the churches of Christ? YES NO
7. In reference to the above two questions, did you graduate? (check all that apply): YES - from a 2-year college; YES - from a 4-year college; NO.
8. In your opinion, should Michigan Christian College add additional four-year degree programs and eventually become a full four-year college? YES NO
9. If you have children at home and intend to send them to college, would you be more apt to send them to Michigan Christian College if the institution were a full four-year college? YES NO
10. What is your relationship with Michigan Christian College at this time? (check all that apply): Alumnus; Current student; Parent of a current student; Parent of an Alumnus; Friend.

11. On a scale of 1 to 5 (1 being the lowest influence), how would the following conditions affect you or your children's attendance at a Christian college? (please circle)

a. Whether it is a 2-year or 4-year college	1 2 3 4 5
b. Spiritual atmosphere on campus	1 2 3 4 5
c. Influence of parents	1 2 3 4 5
d. Recommendation of other acquaintances	1 2 3 4 5
e. Costs	1 2 3 4 5

g. Availability of financial aid	1 2 3 4 5
h. Financial stability of the institution	1 2 3 4 5
i. Distance from home	1 2 3 4 5
j. Proximity to a metropolitan area	1 2 3 4 5
k. Quality of faculty	1 2 3 4 5
l. Academic reputation	1 2 3 4 5
12. List the most prominent reason why you do or you would financially support a Christian college. _____
13. Classify how strongly you believe a Christian college in a particular geographic area stimulates church growth in that area: (check one)

_____ Extremely strong;
_____ Moderately strong;
_____ Strong;
_____ Of little value.
14. List three majors that you think should be priorities as Michigan Christian College adds new four-year degrees, in addition to Bible and Business.

a. _____
c. _____

We urge you to respond to this survey. Usually, these kinds of requests come to you by letter. It is going to be extremely interesting to see how many respond to this survey without the convenience of a return envelope. I wish it were possible to enclose one, but you can see that it isn't practical in this bulletin format. Please do not allow this inconvenience to keep you from making your feelings known. Just cut out this section when you have completed the questions, then drop it in an envelope to the address shown in the fourth paragraph of this letter.

We deeply appreciate all the friends of Michigan Christian College who have supported her across the years. Hopefully, your 1989 will be a highly successful year, filled with the blessings of good health, happiness and success.

Very sincerely,

Milton B. Fletcher
President

Soccer Team shows improvement in second season

The 1988 Soccer Team, coached by MCC alumnus Ken Jamison, finished its second season with a 1-8 record. Eleven goals were scored throughout the season, a noticeable improvement over last year's four goals. Games were played against Nazareth College, Grace Bible College, Ft. Wayne Bible College, Concordia Lutheran, and Delta College.

Team members included returning players Kevin Gallo-way, from La Porte, Indiana; Schell Schaeding, from Midland, Michigan; Pete Sexton, from Attica, Michigan; and Edet Udofia, from Uyo, Nigeria, West Africa. Joining the team were Tom Adams, from Flushing, Michigan; Korey Bailey, from Lake Orion, Michigan; Paul Davison, from Angola, Indiana; and Jeff Denny, from Brownsburg, Indiana. Also new to the team were Chee Hong Lim, from Salangor, Malaysia; Mark Mantych, from Fraser, Michigan; Tracy Rose, from Washington Court House, Ohio; John Sandella, a junior transfer student from Topeka, Kansas; and Rob Stanley, from Oxford, Michigan.

Leading scorers were Tom Adams, who also played goalie, Tracy Rose, Rob Stanley, and Paul Davison. "All of the players assisted those who scored goals," commented Athletic Director Bill Shinsky. "Team members played each game with a cooperative spirit, and no one player tried to steal the spotlight. This winning attitude was most evident on October 20, when the Warriors beat Ft. Wayne Bible College 4-3."

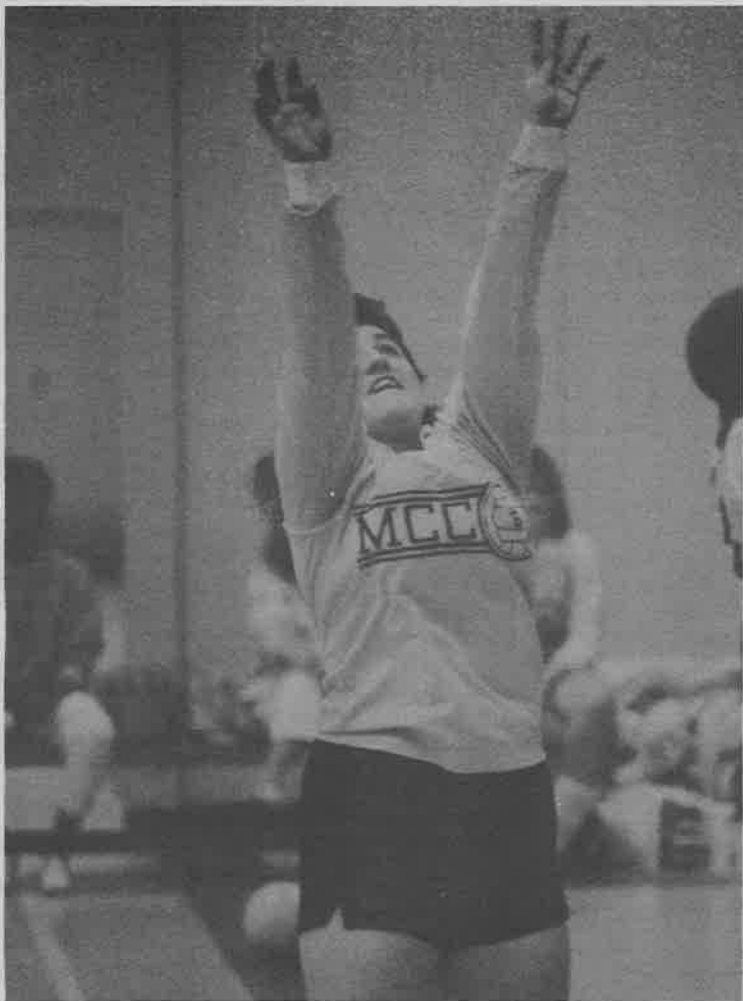

Due to commitments Jamison will have in 1989, Coach Shinsky will assume the role of soccer coach. "It takes time to build a strong program," stated Shinsky. "All of the colleges we play against are four-year schools, which can be hard on a small team's morale. With the possibility of eight returning players, however, we will be able to start with a strong team and continue to grow into a better program."

Women's Volleyball Team wins first trophy

In its third year, the MCC Women's Volleyball program has made great strides. Consisting almost entirely of veteran players, this year's team embodied the consistency and stability which enabled the team, at the September 1988 Cincinnati Bible Tournament, to capture the first women's sports trophy in the history of the College.

A season record of 8-16 included wins against Ft. Wayne Bible College, St. Mary's Bible College, Lincoln, Cincinnati Bible College, Grace Bible College, and St. Clair College. Additional schools played were Nazareth, Bluffton-Sinclair, Concordia-Kellogg, and Tiffin University.

Serving as Co-Captains were Roni Spencer, a sophomore from Canton, Ohio; and Clarkston, Michigan sophomore Laurie Brandt, this year's leading setter. Paula Zink, a 5'11" freshman from Utica, Michigan, was the leading hitter.

Coach Kent Wieb sees the individual players' attitudes of team cooperation as the program's strongest asset. "Solid, experienced high school prospects see MCC as an opportunity to better their techniques and skills through frequent playing time," states Wieb. "The input of each player is essential to the overall success of the team. This is the key that has helped us build a strong program."

Associates' Gift-A-Rama begins holiday season

On November 19, 1988, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., the Associates of Michigan Christian College held their annual Gift-A-Rama. Chapters from congregations throughout Michigan and Ohio sponsored booths, offering a wide variety of holiday gift items.

Featured craft items included gifts made from wood, Christmas ornaments, handmade jewelry, woven baskets, needle-point treasures, quilts, and many personalized articles. At the Cafetorium entrance caramel apples, fudge, and other homebaked goodies could be purchased. In addition, several booths sold staple food items necessary for holiday baking.

Various chapters offered a Salad Luncheon, tacos, chili, soup, pie and coffee. Other special features of the day were hourly door prizes, and a "Santa's Workshop" at which children could purchase small, inexpensive gifts for family and friends.

Jim Bill McInteer keynotes Second Annual Chicagoland Partnership Dinner

On November 11, 1988, in Lemont, Illinois, supporters of Michigan Christian College gathered for the Second Annual Chicagoland Partnership Dinner. Held at the White Fence Farm Restaurant, the event was attended by 137 guests. Commenting on the turnout, Mr. Kent Hoggatt, MCC's Director of Church Relations, stated, "Every seat was filled. We even had to ask the management to make room for additional guests. That's a good problem to have."

Mr. Vince Swinney, an elder at the Cardinal Drive Church of Christ, in Rolling Meadows, Illinois, served as Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Mr. Jack Hicks, Minister at the Cardinal Drive congregation, opened the evening of events with a prayer of thanks for the meal. Following the meal, Mr. Swinney thanked all Steering Committee members and Congregational Chairmen, and introduced MCC's traveling musical group, Autumn. Mr. Hoggatt then presented a Congregational Ticket Sales Report and an audiovisual program about the college.

Mr. Jim Bill McInteer, of Nashville, Tennessee, was the keynote speaker for the Dinner. In addition to his duties as President of the 20th Century Christian magazine, Mr.

McInteer travels throughout the United States preaching at gospel meetings. At the Chicagoland Dinner, he delivered a particularly inspiring speech concerning reasons area Christians should financially support Michigan Christian College.

Following Mr. McInteer's speech, MCC President Milton B. Fletcher delivered the "State of the College" report. Mr. Swinney then thanked guests for attending the Dinner, and introduced the participants for the devotional. Mr. Charles Beals, an elder at the Brookfield, Illinois congregation, began the devotional with a prayer, followed by several hymns led by Mr. Kenneth Dodd, Minister at the Chicago-Northwest Church of Christ. Mr. Leonard Mathes, an elder at the Chicago-Lakeview Church of Christ, read a passage of scripture, and Mr. Dodd closed the devotional with a final hymn. Mr. Paul Kirby, Minister at the Valparaiso, Indiana Church of Christ, brought the evening's events to a close with a prayer.

Lectureship theme is "Thy Will Be Done"

On October 2-6, 1988, area Christians met on the campus of Michigan Christian College for the Annual Bible Lectureship. This year's theme, "Thy Will Be Done," featured lessons and lectures on God's will in various aspects of our lives as Christians. Daily audiences of 200-600 were able to renew old friendships, make new acquaintances, and benefit from the study of God's word.

Dr. Mac Lynn, Chairman of the Bible Department at David Lipscomb University, opened the evening lecture sessions with his thoughts on the topic "Thy Will Be Done in the Growth of the Kingdom." Prior to his work as a Bible professor at DLU, Dr. Lynn taught at Harding Graduate School of Religion for 14 years and Columbia Christian College for 9 years. He has served in several states as pulpit and education minister, and has a special interest in church plantings and growth.

Dr. John C. Stevens, also an evening lecturer, spoke to guests concerning the topic "Thy Will Be Done in Government." Dr. Stevens currently serves as Chancellor and Professor of History at Abilene Christian University, and has previously held the positions of President, Assistant President, Dean of Students, Dean of Men, and Assistant Professor of History.

In addition to his duties at ACU, Dr. Stevens has served on the Board of Directors of the Guaranteed Student Loan Corporation of Texas, and held offices in the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities and the Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas Association. He has served as a member of Abilene's City Council, and was part of the Chaplain's Staff for General Patton during World War II.

Dr. Ken Durham delivered an evening lecture message on the topic "Thy Will Be Done as I Relate to My Neighbor." Dr. Durham was recently appointed pulpit minister of the South National Church of Christ in Springfield, Missouri; and is co-host of the Herald of Truth television program. During the past eight years, he served as minister for the Stamford, Connecticut Church of Christ. Prior to this, he served as campus minister for the Universities of Texas and Kentucky. He is author of the book Speaking from the Heart; and is co-author, with Dr. Harold Hazelip, of Jesus, Our Mentor and Model, and Becoming Persons of Integrity.

Mr. Jack Duty, Minister for the Clawson, Michigan Church of Christ, spoke to evening guests on the topic "God's Will Relieves Personal Pressures."

In addition to his work as Minister, Mr. Duty has served for the past 5 years as Co-director of the annual Blue Ridge Encampment. He has also conducted seminars on "Aging" and "Marriage and the Family," and is the author of two books, Don't Take It Personally, But... Let's Communicate Honestly and Choose Life. From 1966-1976, he served as President and Director of Northeastern Ohio Christian Youth Camp.

Bringing the evening lecture sessions to a close, Dr. Carl Brecheen spoke to attendees on the topic "Thy Will Be Done in My Family." Dr. Brecheen teaches Bible at Abilene Christian University, and is a Family Life Specialist. He and his colleague Dr. Paul Faulkner have conducted Marriage Enrichment Seminars since 1974, and have co-authored the book What Every Family Needs. Dr. Brecheen has a private counseling practice, and serves as one of the elders at the University Church of Christ, in Abilene.

A men's class was held each morning in the gymnasium, taught by Dr. Paul Southern. Dr. Southern formerly taught Bible at MCC, Columbia Christian College, and European Christian College. He was also a member of the Bible faculty at Abilene Christian University for 34 years, 19 of which he served as Chairman of the Bible Department. In addition, he and his wife Margaret have been missionaries in over 50 countries.

Dr. Fawn Knight taught a ladies' class every afternoon in the Westside Central Chapel. Dr. Knight has been a member of the English faculty at MCC since 1978, and teaches graduate level courses at Oakland University. In addition, she has written two publications on children's literature. Previously, she and her husband served as house parents at the Shults-Lewis Children's Home in Valparaiso, Indiana.

General classes, offered each afternoon in the gymnasium,

VIDEO PARTY! Attention Alumni!

Here is a great chance for you to encourage others to benefit from the opportunities available to them at Michigan Christian College. From Maine to California, Florida to Washington, this is an effective way to assist your alma mater.

What is a Video Party?

You host in your home an informal gathering of the teens from your church youth group. A Sunday evening after worship is often a good time for this type of activity. The evening could include light refreshments and a devotional. At some point, you gather the group around your television and share with them the new video presentation about MCC. This could then lead into a discussion about college life and your experiences at MCC. If other alumni attend your congregation, they could assist you in hosting the evening.

What MCC Provides for Your Video Party

Prior to your video party, MCC will confirm the date with a suggestion sheet for making the most of the evening. A few days before your party, you will receive some materials about MCC to give to those coming to the party and a copy of the video to use at your party.

How to Arrange Your Video Party

To arrange your video party, simply return the form below to the MCC Admissions Office. Please allow 30 days for processing and to make sure that your tape is reserved! For more information phone Larry Stewart toll-free at 1-800-872-2579 (Michigan) or 1-800-521-6010 (Outstate).

The A Cappella Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Joe Bentley, makes their 1988-89 debut.

Mrs. Cynthia Fletcher, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, accepts the "Artist of the Year" Plaque from President Milton Fletcher during the Parents' and Friends' Luncheon.

Father/Daughter Banquet is keynoted by Dr. Leo Hindsley

On September 30, 1988, 130 individuals gathered in the MCC Cafetorium for the annual Father/Daughter Banquet. The theme for this year's banquet, sponsored by the Student Services Office, was "Is This the Little Girl?"

Dr. Leo Hindsley, Professor of History and French, served as keynote speaker for the evening. Nostalgically he read several letters written to him by his daughter, Becky Pate, when she was a young girl and the Hindsleys were serving as missionaries in France. "These letters," Dr. Hindsley stated, "are kept in my box of special treasures." He went on to encourage fathers and daughters to "always express your love for each other, and never let barriers grow up among you."

Mr. Bernard Leshley played dinner music throughout a delicious meal, served by Marriott, which included orange roughy, roast turkey, salad, cream of broccoli soup, potatoes, carrots, fresh fruit, and a choice of apple, cherry, or blueberry pie. Mr. Joe Bentley later sang "Sunrise, Sunset" to his three-year-old daughter, Marianne.

Fathers and daughters were present from the states of Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and Nebraska. Among the guests were Mr. Garth Pleasant, Dean of Students, and his daughter, Kim. Dean Pleasant humorously shared with the audience the difficulty he was experiencing in allowing his "little girl" to grow up and receive calls from boyfriends. Mr. Bob Rathbun, MCC's Plant Superintendent, escorted his daughter, Gail; Mr. Jesse Yoakum, a member of the College's Board of Trustees, accompanied his daughter, Anne; and Mr. Jon Fulton, a Senior B.R.E. student, escorted his three-year-old daughter, Jenny.

Honduran student Nuzly Tablada proved that a father can be someone close in heart by asking Mr. Marlon Wheat, of Lansing, Michigan, to serve as her father-away-from-home. Several out-of-state students asked their fathers, through the Mutual Adoption Program at Rochester Church of Christ, to accompany them to the banquet. Mr. Stan Day, Minister for the Marshall, Michigan Church of Christ, accompanied two daughters, both students at MCC, to the banquet.

Mr. Ralph Collins, father of Associate Dean of Students, Mrs. Birgie Houston, had the honor of being the father who traveled the farthest distance. Summarizing the unique relationship between fathers and daughters all over the world, Dean Houston commented that, "Events such as this banquet celebrate the special bond that fathers and daughters all over the world share."

were taught by Bible Department faculty Dr. Stephen Eckstein, Dr. Michael Houston, and Dr. Melvin Storm. A Thursday afternoon class was also available which featured the thoughts of Dr. Carl and Mrs. Smitty Brecheen on the topic "Thy Will Be Done in Parenting."

A variety of luncheons and dinners were held throughout the week at the Rivercrest Banquet Hall and the Rochester Church building. At the Parents' and Friends' Luncheon, on Wednesday afternoon, the Ken Stewart and Harry Milam families were honored as "Parents of the Year;" and Mrs. Cynthia Fletcher, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was presented as the "Artist of the Year." Mrs. Fletcher's painting was a likeness of the Homemaking House, formerly known as the Gatehouse.

Christian Ministries Workshops are held in Illinois, Kentucky, and Ohio

Three Michigan Christian College Christian Ministries Workshops were held during Fall, 1988. Workshop participants traveled to Naperville, Illinois; Florence, Kentucky; and Ashland, Ohio to offer these seminars to area congregations.

Instructors at the workshops included Dr. and Mrs. Milton Fletcher, Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Eckstein, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Hoggatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stewart. In addition, several members of each host congregation participated in the workshops. Lecturers at the Naperville workshop included

David Walker, an employee at the Mt. Clemens, MI Church of Christ Care Center, Chuck Thyne, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shaner, Connie Wallace, and Nikki Holland. Wayne Howes and Dale Bertram helped conduct classes at the Florence workshop. Inspirational a cappella music was provided by the Naperville Quartet, and the Florence Christian Jubilee Singers.

Classes offered at the workshops included "Cradle Roll;" "Teaching Primaries;" "Teaching Ladies Class;" "Let's Make a Visual Aid;" "Respect the Child;" "Now I Get It! Revitalizing Adult Bible Classes;" "Planning and Conducting a Successful VBS;" and "Bible School Supervision." Also part of the program are the classes "How Do We Motivate Others?" "The Home as God Designed It;" "The Power of Vision;" "Creatively Serving In The Kingdom As A Single;" and "Facing Life's Crises."

Any congregation wishing to sponsor a Christian Ministries Workshop is encouraged to do so. Plans may be made by contacting Mr. Kent Hoggatt, Director of Church Relations for Michigan Christian College, at 313-651-5800.

Annual Fund Dinners draw together MCC Supporters

Two Annual Fund Dinners were held in behalf of Michigan Christian College during the Fall semester of 1988. The Sixth Nashville Annual Fund Dinner was held at the Family Life Center Fellowship Hall, in Madison, Tennessee, on October 21; and the Second Central Illinois Area Annual Fund Dinner was held in Bloomington, Illinois on November 12.

Members of a Steering Committee organized and implemented the Nashville Dinner. Committee members included Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Clayton, former MCC employees; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bill McInteer; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bridgesmith, both graduates of MCC; and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Dozier.

The annual event included an audiovisual presentation and "State of the College" report; a solo concert performed by Mr. Phil Sanders; and a commemorative presentation made to the wife and three sons of Dr. Ron Cullison, an alumnus who passed away in June of 1988.

Mr. Don Crittenden, Minister at the Four Seasons Road Church of Christ, presided over the Central Illinois Dinner. Over 45 guests were present representing the Illinois congregations of Morton, Bloomington-Four Seasons, Lincoln, East Peoria, Springfield-Clear Lake, Decatur-Morningside Chapel, and Arcola.

Participants in a devotional were Mr. Jamie Driskill, a member of the Morton congregation, leading the singing; Mr. Dick Wright, reading scripture; and Mr. Dick Miller, Minister at the congregation in Arcola, and Charles Wilhelm, an elder at the Morningside congregation, both leading prayers.

President Milton Fletcher brought attendees up to date on the current status of the College, and Mr. Kent Hoggatt presented an audiovisual program. Autumn, the College's traveling music ensemble, provided the entertainment for the evening.

Each year, dinners are held throughout the United States, promoting good will among supporters of Michigan Christian College, and keeping the clientele informed about the school's progress. Additional annual fund dinners, currently scheduled January through June 1989, will be held in Dayton and Cincinnati, Ohio; and Dallas/Ft. Worth and Abilene, Texas.

Fifty-six booths opened for service at 1988 Fall Festival

On September 10, 1988, the 30th annual Associates' Fall Festival was held on the campus of Michigan Christian College. Fifty-six booths, a combined effort of the Associates Chapters, included food and craft items, flea market sales, and activities for children.

Twenty-three food booths offered a selection of breakfast platters, tacos, nachos, steerburgers, barbecued meats, baked goods, cotton candy, soft drinks, and homemade ice cream. The newest Associates Chapter, from the Lake Orion congregation, sold deep-fried funnel cakes topped with powdered sugar and cinnamon.

A total of 19 craft booths were set up, some of which included wares from several local merchants who donated 25% of the day's profit to the College. In addition, booths featuring face painting, "fishing for prizes," and a moonwalk were available for children. The Alumni Association sold balloons, carnations, and pen-and-ink prints, while booths selling "attic treasures" and "barn sale" items completed the array of offerings.

At noon the 1987-88 Fall Festival Queen, Mrs. Mary Utley, crowned Mrs. Ruby Williams, of the Ypsilanti Chapter, the new Queen. Additional candidates included Mrs. Frona Hawkins, from the Pontiac Chapter; and Mrs. Carletta Miller, from the Brighton Chapter. President Milton Fletcher stated "These three ladies, and the entire group of Associates who each year sponsor 'Queens' to raise money for the College, are to be commended." The total amount raised from Queen's votes, this year, was $17,701.84.

At 2:00 p.m. the Tumbleweeds performed barbershop, country-western, and pop music for a full audience, in the Westside Central Chapel. Tumbleweeds members include Jim Calkin, an MCC Admissions Counselor and a 1987 graduate of the B.R.E. program; David Brackney, a 1987 graduate of the Business Program; Jeff Westerby and Mark Brackney, both juniors in the B.R.E. program; and Phillip Brackney, a freshman at Flint's Valley Christian Academy.

The Associates would like to thank key people who assisted them in setting up and operating the Festival. These individuals include Mr. E.L. Free-land, of the Gateway congregation, who operated the sound equipment; Mr. Everette Foster, of the Gateway Church of Christ, who set up electrical outlets necessary for the booths; and the staff of Mr. Bob Rathbun, MCC's Plant Superintendent.

The Echo Meadows Chapter, of Toledo, Ohio, tempts the sweet tooth of every passerby with cookies, candies, and other goodies.

Randy Gill, an MCC Youth Leaders' Workshop Lecturer, speaks to students at an MCC Chapel Service.

Seventh MCC Youth Leaders' Workshop held at Rochester Church of Christ

On September 9-10, 1988, the seventh Youth Leaders' Workshop was held at the Rochester Church of Christ. Attendees were present from the Detroit, Flint and the Toledo, Ohio areas. The MCC-sponsored Workshop, held every other year, features small group lectures and discussions.

Randy Gill, a 1972 graduate of Michigan Christian College and a 1974 graduate of Harding University, spoke to Workshop participants and to MCC students at a Chapel service. Upon graduation, Randy and his wife, LuJuana, worked with the College for 10 years at which time he was the Director for the A Cappella Chorus. During this period of time, he completed a Master's degree in Music at the University of Michigan. In the fall of 1984, the Gills moved to Malibu, California where Randy pursued his Ph.D. at the University of Southern California, and worked with a traveling music group at Pepperdine University. After a year at Oklahoma Christian College, the Gills are now back in Malibu where Randy is Assistant Director for the Pepperdine Chorus and works with the teen group at the Malibu congregation.

Scottye Ratliffe, also a speaker at the Workshop, received a B.S. in Physical Therapy, with a minor in Bible, from Abilene Christian University in 1981. While at ACU, Scottye played on one of the National Football Championship teams. Upon graduation, he and his wife moved to Amarillo, Texas where he served as Youth Minister for 6 years at the Central Church of Christ. Scottye, the father of 4 children, is presently serving as Coordinator for the Young Marrieds Ministry at the Central congregation.

Mr. Kent Hoggatt, MCC's Director of Church Relations, coordinates the Youth Leaders' Workshop and has stated, "We would like to dispel any idea that these workshops are just for Youth Ministers. They are for anyone who works with young people."

Foreign student enrollment adds variety to MCC student body

On the campus of Michigan Christian College are students of varied ages and ethnic backgrounds. In addition to a student body of United States and Canadian citizens, full-time students are enrolled from India, Malaysia, Honduras, Indonesia, Austria, West Africa, and the Virgin Islands.

Duncan Alney, a 20-year-old freshman from Calcutta, India, is the only child of Donald and Winnie Alney. Duncan's parents have made careers of teaching, and Donald Alney is currently Principal of a private high school.

Born in Bombay, Maharashtra, India, Duncan grew up in a fairly large city in West Bengal. Throughout high school, he actively participated in soccer, field hockey, drama, chorus, and debate. In addition, he took photographs for the school newspaper, and was a member of the junior Rotary Club. Debate is a popular high school activity in India, and Duncan was able to acquire excellent public speaking skills and a strong command of the English language through government-sponsored contests of elocution.

Upon graduation from high school, Duncan attended St. Xavier's College and worked as a photographer/writer for a local newspaper known as "The Statesman." He chose to transfer to MCC, because he wanted to study at a small American college. When asked his opinion of MCC Duncan stated, "None of the other schools I researched seemed to have as strong or dedicated a religious program and faculty as does MCC."

Chee Hong Lim also grew up in a large city. The 19-year-old native of Salangor, Malaysia is the only son in a middle class family of five. He hopes to complete a degree in Business, and eventually operate his own finance corporation.

Chee Hong is of Chinese descent, but was given the choice to attend either a Malaysian, English, Chinese, or Hindu school. Within the program of each school system, the Malaysian and English languages are taught. Academics are highly stressed as is a course known as "Civics," which teaches students how to be good citizens.

In high school, Chee Hong participated in the extracurricular activities of Track, and Cadet Police, a club in which he was taught strict discipline. "Discipline," stated Chee Hong, "is greatly stressed and valued in Malaysia, in all areas of one's life."

Chee Hong's mother learned of MCC through the American College Locators International program, and persuaded him to study in America. When asked his thoughts about MCC, Chee Hong stated, "People here, even when they don't know you, are very open and will talk to you about almost anything. In Malaysia, people keep more to themselves and, thus, do not easily make friends."

Nuzly Tablada, as is the case with many foreign students, wishes to someday return to her native country. She misses her mother and sister, and hopes to eventually return with a computer science degree and look for a computer programming job. Nuzly has stated, "In Latin America, if you know English and computers many doors are opened and you can choose virtually any job you wish."

Nuzly wishes, also, to help the Church grow in her hometown of Catacamas, Olancho, Honduras. As a young girl, she spent many hours assisting missionaries in building huts and bringing medicine to people in outer regions.

Nuzly was convinced by missionaries Marlon and Jenny Wheat, of Lansing, Michigan, to study at Michigan Christian College. Having such special members of her Christian family nearby helps relieve the homesickness and confusion common to many foreign students. Nuzly stated about MCC that "Classes are often harder because of my language barrier, but my teachers go the extra mile to help me understand the material. I'm so happy to finally be studying at a Christian College."

Dekson Pranatio was born and raised in Jakarta, Indonesia. He has an older sister, and a younger brother. In his hometown, of 8 million people, Dekson's family operates a video rental store from the front of their home.

Academics were average in his school system, but Dekson enjoyed participating in soccer and martial arts.

Dekson likes MCC because, "The people are Christians, and being here gives me the opportunity to strike out on my own." After completing two years at MCC, he will transfer to a school that offers a Chemical Engineering degree. Upon finishing his education, he hopes to work several years in the United States and eventually return to Indonesia.

Edet Udofia is a 27-year-old freshman from Uyo, Akwa Ibom, Nigeria. He has been married for a little over a year, and hopes his wife will soon be able to join him in America. "Family is an important treasure in Nigeria," Edet stated. "Parents assist young men in picking out a wife, and young couples usually live in the same home with the man's parents. Elder community members are highly respected and adhered to. Their wisdom helps guide the young in making daily decisions." Edet spends his summers going to school, and will not return to Nigeria until he completes his education.

Edet is studying Bible at Michigan Christian College at the suggestion of Dr. Lucien and Mrs. Ida Palmer, a former President and First Lady of the College who are active in the Nigerian work. Edet plans to return to his country to preach and work with the Nigerian Christian Schools program.

While a student at MCC, Edet has been involved in soccer, Alpha Beta social club, His Wordsmen, and Mission Emphasis. He adds a sense of maturity to the student body, and is greatly appreciated by his classmates and teachers. About the College he has stated, "MCC really gives you a sense of belonging."

Foreign students often have the more difficult adjustments of language barrier, distance from home, and culture shock that most American students do not have. They, however, like most students at the College, value the spiritual emphasis, academic challenge, and close ties which are part of the spirit of Michigan Christian College.

Mr. Allen Barber, Minister for the Church of Christ in Portage, Michigan, speaks to employees, students, and guests at the 1988-89 Opening Day Chapel.

30th Year celebrated with Opening Week Activities

September 7, 1988 marked the official opening of the 30th school year at Michigan Christian College. Activities during the week of September 4-10, 1988 included parent and student orientations, a concert performed by the Tumbleweeds, devotionals beside Lake Norcentra, games and a watermelon feast on the front lawn, and Registration. Freshman bus tours of local sites, a concert performed by alumnus and former A Cappella Director Randy Gill, and the Associates' Fall Festival were also part of the week's events.

On September 4, in the Westside Central Chapel, parents were invited to the annual Parent's Orientation, at which time they were welcomed by the President. Following the welcome and "State of the College" address by the President, parents had the opportunity to ask questions of a panel of parents comprised of John and Otha Barcus, Lynn and Sandi Bliss, Jerry and Rita Brackney, and Stan and Pam Day. A student panel comprised of Reggie Best, Vic Bliss, Troy Butler, Davena Fields, and Dereka Smith also answered questions for parents.

Following the Opening Session, parents of new students had the opportunity to seek answers to financial, disciplinary, and academic questions. Answers and explanations were given by Dr. Leonard Knight, Academic Dean; Mr. Kevin McKisson, Registrar; Mr. Garth Pleasant, Dean of Students; Mrs. Birgie Houston, Associate Dean of Students; Mr. Mark Briggs, Business Services Manager; and Miss Nan Eckstein, Financial Aid Director. Later that evening, these individuals were joined by additional administrators, faculty, and staff at the President's Reception in the Chapel for new students and their parents.

Registration of returning sophomores in the Chapel and the Utley Student Center, and several afternoon and evening get-acquainted activities were conducted on Monday, September 5. Freshmen were registered the following day, and enjoyed an evening watermelon feast on the College's front lawn.

All new and returning students were welcomed to the 30th year at Opening Day Chapel, on Wednesday, September 7. Mr. Allen Barber, Minister for the Church of Christ in Portage, Michigan, delivered the lesson which followed a welcome speech by Dr. Howard Hagerman, a member of the College Board of Trustees. Additional platform guests included Mr. Roger Knapp, an MCC alumnus and Mayor of the City of Rochester; Mrs. Margaret Hadfield, President of the Associates for MCC; Mrs. Betty Dunlap, a member of the Alumni Association

Students meet new friends, and renew old acquaintances at the first Chapel Service of the 1988-89 school year.

Executive Committee; Mr. Joe Bentley, A Cappella Chorus Director; Dr. Mike Houston, a member of the Bible faculty; Dr. John Todd, a member of the Political Science faculty; Academic Dean Leonard Knight; and Mr. Jim Craig, the 1988-89 Student Body President.

A concert performed by Mr. Randy Gill, of Pepperdine University, was held Friday evening in the Westside Central Chapel. The following day, September 10, the Associates' Fall Festival brought to a close the first week of MCC's 30th year.

Freshman Scott Reece meets employees of the College at the President's Reception for new students and their parents.

Opening Day Chapel platform guests, and the entire audience, participate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Three MCC Golf Classics are held in the Midwest

The Eighth Annual Detroit Area Golf Classic was held on July 30, 1988, in Brighton, Michigan. MCC Golf Classics were also held, for the first time, in the Dayton/Cincinnati area, on July 23, and in the Chicago area, on August 5.

Members of the MCC Detroit Area Golf Classic Committee included Bob Cucheran, Peg Fowler, Duane Harrison, Dennis Saulsberry, Bill Shinsky, Jerry Tallman, and Rick Watson. These individuals worked with President Milton Fletcher, and the Oak Pointe Golf Club, to set up tee times and arrangements for the 6:30 p.m. Awards Banquet.

The MCC Detroit Area Golf Classic had 143 participants. At the evening banquet, trophies and prizes were awarded in the following categories:

Spotlights

Jill (Drummond) Brazle

Jill graduated from MCC in 1973, the first student to have done so with a 4.0 grade point average. Along with achieving high academic marks, she participated in the A Cappella Chorus, drama, and intramural sports. Completing her education at Oklahoma Christian College, Jill graduated in 1975 with a degree in Mathematics. In the summer following graduation she married Mark Brazle.

The Brazles moved to Weyburn, Saskatchewan, Canada, in 1975, to work with Mark's alma mater, Western Christian College. Employed there, they worked with the program called ACT which sends WCC students to Belgium to work with the Church for the summer.

In 1977 the Brazles, along with two other couples, made a commitment to live permanently in Belgium and spread the gospel among the Flemish community. Throughout the past decade, Jill and Mark have continued to work with the ACT program, coordinated Marriage Encounter seminars, sung with the Trinidad Singers, assisted in translating the Bible from English to Dutch, and worked with Belgium Christian youth camps.

For one year the Brazles, and their five children Luk, Rebekka, David, Karina, and Kristina, are working with the Church in Jill's hometown of Cuyoga Falls, Ohio. They plan to return to Belgium in August of 1989 to continue their work with the Leuven Church of Christ.

Tom and Diane (Conner) Rellinger

The Rellingers, both natives of Gladwin, Michigan, graduated from MCC in 1980. Continuing their education at Oklahoma Christian College, Tom earned a B.S. in Chemistry and Computer Science and Diane a Bachelor of Science in Education (B.S.E.).

The Rellingers were married on July 25, 1981. Upon graduation from OCC in 1982, they moved to Ponca City, Oklahoma where Tom worked as a Computer Programmer with Conoco, and Diane taught Physical Education at a junior high school. On January 19, 1985, the Rellingers' oldest daughter, Kali, was born.

In the fall of 1985, Tom accepted a position as Systems Engineer with IBM, and the Rellingers relocated to Trenton, Michigan. After a short period of time, Tom moved to his current position as one of IBM's Marketing Representatives. The Rellingers' second daughter, Mackenzie, was born on December 2, 1987.

While worshipping in both Oklahoma and Michigan, Tom and Diane have actively worked with teenagers and college students. Even though Tom continues to be employed by IBM, the Rellingers are presently serving as Dormitory Supervisors at Michigan Christian College. They feel their "mission" is to help and encourage the students here.

The Rellingers are enjoying working for the college which helped influence the direction of their lives. Both have stated, "We loved our experience as students and are excited to now be able to give back something of ourselves."
